

Buchta Names S. H. Finley Defendant In $25,000 Suit

FAILED TO KEEP AGREEMENT ON LEASE. CHARGE

Col. S. H. Finley, supervisor, civic worker and large property owner of this city, was named defendant in a suit for $25,000 damages filed in the federal court in Los Angeles, yesterday, by Joe Buchta, former tenant of the Golden West hotel, owned by Finley.

Buchta alleges in his complaint that Finley refused to comply with an agreement to give him a 10-year lease on the hotel. He asserts that he invested $35,000 in furniture for the hotel on the promise of Finley that a 10-year lease would be given.

It was recalled here today that Finley was the winner in suits filed here against Mr. and Mrs. Buchta for non-payment of rent. The court gave Finley judgment for the amount due.

Buchta pleaded guilty here in 1924 to a liquor charge while conducting the hotel and spent six months in the county jail.

Manila Theater Tells Its Faults In Newspaper Ad

MANILA, Dec. 12.—(UP)—Candor in advertising has hit the Philippines.

One of the leading motion picture houses has purchased newspaper advertising space to proclaim that it is "delapidated looking," that its chairs are "not upholstered nor highly polished," that "the interior ornamentation staring you in the face in our auditorium would scare the feathers from a flock of crows in a cornfield," and that "our lobby looks like the entrance of a provincial cockpit after a typhoon."

To offset these discouraging factors, it is added that the pictures are splendid, the projection is surpassed nowhere, and that the music can't be beaten.

Mary, in unveiling the memorial said simply: "To the glory of God and in honor of these brave men, I unveil this memorial in behalf of those for whom they died."

After a minute's silence, the queen then placed a wreath on the memorial. A dedicatory prayer was offered by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Critical Operation
LONDON, Dec. 12.—(INS)—A medical authority explained to International News Service this afternoon that "the needle operation performed on King George is a highly critical one."

The authorities said that the afternoon bulletin means that the "exploration" was unsuccessfully tried once before, but that today the poisonous fluid was found and extracted.

For that reason, said the informant, the bulletin is "good news."

This informant added: "The operation performed upon the king is a highly critical one, but the fact that it was successful now gives the physicians information needed for further treatment. This operation probably will be repeated as soon as possible."

"The operation was performed with a needle fitted with a large ring or suction apparatus on one end," International News Service's informant continued. "The operation consists of a puncture between the ribs to reach the lining of the chest wall."

"It is customary for this operation to be performed by the removal of a section of the rib, under a general anesthetic, but in cases of very severe illnesses a local anesthetic is used and the rib section is not removed."

"In the king's case it is certain that a local anesthetic was used, and the rib was not removed."

HE'S THRIFTY, TOO!

PARIS, Dec. 11.—A taxicab driver, unable to find a suitable mate, figured out an inexpensive and modern means of telling the town about it. He posted this advertisement in his cab: "WANTED—A WIFE I want to marry; I own this cab; the girl must be well off. Strictest confidence." But at last reports he was still single.

WOMAN MAYOR

KENILWORTH, N. C., Dec. 12.—Mrs. Leah Arcuet Chiles was elected to be the first woman mayor in North Carolina.

CONDEMNED—SHE'S CALM

Although sentenced to die in the electric chair at Atlanta, Ga., for participation in a hold-up in which the victim was killed, Mrs. Eula Elrod Thompson seems little concerned about her fate. Her worries are for her husband, who is held on the same charge. Last appeals of her attorneys now are pending. Should they fail, Mrs. Thompson would be the second woman ever executed in the state.

PLOT AGAINST HOOVER'S LIFE IS UNCOVERED

against Mr. Hoover's life was definitely made known in an official announcement last night.

The total number of arrests had not been made public.

The official statement indicated that the police had taken early precautions to avoid anti-American demonstrations during the good-will visit such as those which had occurred during the Sacco-Vanzetti trial and executions last year.

After yesterday's raid, when police found seven bombs, dynamite, and arms and ammunition in the house of Manuel Scarzo, additional steps were taken by police to insure safety for Mr. Hoover and his party.

Police claimed that Scarzo and his companion, Cofreino Castro, a Spanish chauffeur, who has so far eluded arrest, had been manufacturing explosives for some time.

Two young women also were arrested when they visited the house after Scarzo's arrest.

Several pistols and revolvers, a railway map of Argentina with several of the lines on it marked heavily in red pencil, and a quantity of counterfeit ten pesos notes were among the articles found in Scarzo's room.

The official statement authorized by President Hipolito Yrigoyen, said:

"The president, desirous of making President-Elect Herbert Hoover's stay in Argentina a happy one and to offer the greatest possible guarantee of personal safety, ordered the police to strengthen their observations of known anarchistic elements. The police complied and found a house containing four hand grenades, two cylindrical bombs, revolvers, and counterfeit money, all of which have been seized."

ABOARD THE TRANS-ANDINE
SPECIAL ENROUTE TO BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 11.—President-Elect Herbert Hoover spent today in the grandeur of the Cordillera, the Andes mountain range of South America.

After a brief visit to Santiago, where the party was received with the greatest enthusiasm, the Hoover party left for Buenos Aires by the overland mountain route at 10:04 p. m. The night was spent at Los Andes. A three hour journey from Santiago, Los Andes marks the beginning of the steep narrow gauge climb over the range.

Always a keen enthusiast for everything of the outdoors, Mr. Hoover arose early at Los Andes, where the party spent the night before beginning the mountain trip. From the time the train left Santiago for the climb to Los Andes the president-elect tried to get every possible glimpse of the scenery, even during the night.

Special carabinieri, or guards, placed at regular intervals, will guard the route all of the way to the Argentine frontier, where Mr. Hoover will be met by a committee representing the government of Argentina. A pilot engine preceded the Hoover train to test the route.

but the method of settlement has been wrong, and in this admission lies all the hopes of the future.

"Civilization has prospered as it has broken the shackles of the past and has dared to enter upon new and better courses of action. The first step in progress is dissatisfaction with present achievement."

"There are those who claim war must be waged for the sake of peace. In no other way, they say, can mankind be certain that his liberties shall continue, and that he shall have a definite assurance of tranquility. Like all contradictions in terms, the argument falls of its own weight. Any means which is wrong in itself must affect in part the end of the cause, and all settlements must partake of the injustices of the means through which it is reached."

"To prevent this condition, war must be made illegal, not only a means to inflict an injury, but also a means to repair it."

"War is a social loss. But for the loss of manpower following the Civil war the immigration problem of this country, which has culminated in a policy of exclusion, would have been settled long ago. War is also an economic loss. There can be no doubt that certain interest prosper, but most of society loses, and even most profits turn out to be temporary. War can only mean a dislocation of the economic and business relationship which have been built up during peace times through steady, normal growth."

"War is a political loss. The normal business of the state is to promote the good and welfare of its members. In war, it must forget this and promote its own interests fancied or real, at the expense of theirs."

"War is an intellectual loss. It means a colossal waste of thought. Universities and colleges are turned from their useful business of education and research to train men for the conflict. The social thinking of the people is not only deranged, but may indeed be destroyed."

"War is finally a great moral and spiritual loss. Settlements which have been made by the sword have, if history teaches a lesson, been ended by the sword."

"Wars will come again, in spite of all we can do to prevent them. Emphasis on humane conditions of warfare will be insisted on only by the friends of civilization and peace. We may all join in the great effort to prevent war and to preserve peace on the theory that henceforth war shall be no more, but in following the illusion of an immediately warless world, we shall find ourselves engulfed in a sanguinary conflict, unlimited as to scope, persons, and measures, which may destroy civilization."

Militarism is our greatest social disease. It is something to be avoided, if a nation is free from it, and to be removed, if the nation is obsessed with it."

BETTER THAN FOLLIES

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The two "nymphs of Exmoor" have been the talk of Minehead. It seems a farmer was rounding up sheep on the moor when a heavy thunder shower came up. He saw something white flashing in a hollow and discovered two maidens taking a real shower bath. When the storm was over the nymphs secured their dry clothing from a crevice in the bank, dressed and went on their merry way.

radio river compact by seven states before construction of the dam. They lost 200,000 acre-feet of the California 4,600,000 demand, however, in the adoption of the Bratton compromise amendment. Opposition forces were elated over the favorable vote on the amendment of Senator Hayden (D) of Arizona exempting the Gila river in that state from future embargoes against power permits until passage of the bill.

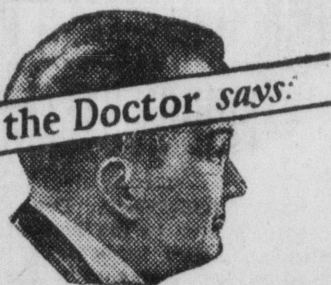

Two stated objections to the measure stood in the way of further progress today, the governmental option power clause and proposed ratification of the Colorado river compact by six states, including California.

Hayden asserted that water allocation compromises in no way ameliorated Arizona's objections to these two provisions. And Senator Ashurst, (D) colleague of Hayden and leader of the opposition to Boulder dam, declared he would "retire into the rocky fastness of the senate rules" should California press for adoption of the provision allowing the government the option of building and operating a power plant at Boulder dam.

The Phipps amendment, providing for ratification of the river compact by six states, is the question before the senate, but one or more amendments to this have been proposed. A vote on this amendment is expected soon after the appropriations measure has been disposed of. Two days, at most, will be all necessary time for debate on this bill, it was said.

THE moment you feel any disagreeable sensation in your throat you should take a dose of PERTUSSIN to prevent coughs. Very often irritation in the throat is caused by dust or habit of smoking. PERTUSSIN helps to clear the air passages and soothes the irritation. It is entirely free from "dope," pleasant to take and has been prescribed by physicians for more than twenty years. PERTUSSIN does not relieve you quickly, you should consult your doctor.

YES, WE HAVE NONE
VERA CRUZ, Dec. 12.—The old line in the old song, "Yes, We Have No Bananas" may come true in the near future. More than 5,000,000 banana plants, valued at nearly a dollar each, were recently destroyed in this vicinity by a tropical hurricane.

RABID FANS
AMSTERDAM, Dec. 12.—Dutch followers of football outdo even our well-known gate crasher, "One-Eyed" Connolly. In a recent international football game played here, fans were smuggled into the stadium in banana boxes, and some swam across a canal to gain entrance.

A WORD OF COMFORT
There is truth in Schiller's statement that man is not free and fully man until he becomes an artist. It means that so long as man is a mere creature of circumstances, he is a stolid, unimaginative creature, devoid of purpose and aspiration. You are to grow to your full manhood as you determine to create something worthy of God's love and of man's respect out of the fragments into which your life was shattered by a great sorrow. God will not leave you to struggle alone.

SALESMAN IS CHARGED WITH DRIVING DRUNK

One man was seriously injured, another was arrested and police are seeking two others as the result of an automobile collision at the intersection of South Main street and St. Gertrude's place early last night.

The injured man is George Gilmore, 2008 Oak street, driver of one of the machines. He is in the county hospital, suffering from internal injuries and severe cuts about the body. His condition this morning was reported as serious.

Police arrested H. P. Appel, 34, fruit salesman, of 912 East Walnut street, Orange, at the scene of the accident and are holding him in the county jail on a charge of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

Witnesses told officers that there were two other men in the car with Appel at the time of the accident but that they jumped out and ran away when the crash occurred. Appel was the only one at the scene when officers arrived.

The city's shotgun squad was called out and a thorough search made in the neighborhood, but the two missing men were not found. An hour after the accident police were informed that one of the men was sitting on a curb on a street in the south end of the city. Officers investigated but the man had disappeared.

The car which police accuse Appel of driving at the time of the accident was registered to S. W. Collins, of 912 East Walnut street, Orange. It was being driven south on Main street at the time of the accident. Gilmore was traveling east on St. Gertrude's place.

WILL ASK BIDS ON SCHOOL REROOFING

A special meeting of the Santa Ana board of education has been called at 4:30 p. m., December 21, it was announced today. The board at this time will receive bids on the work of reroofing the Spurgeon school, reported necessary by R. H. Drake, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

At last night's session the board authorized the installation of new equipment and the making of alterations in the kitchen in the high school cafeteria. The work is expected to cost approximately $3000, according to Drake.

The changes are planned in order to accommodate more efficiently the large number of students which use the cafeteria.

COURT DISMISSES POSSESSION COUNT

Evidence in the case of Mrs. Blanche Addington, Wintersburg woman, charged with possession of intoxicating liquor and prior conviction, was not deemed sufficient by Justice Kenneth Morrison, who heard the case this morning, and the case was dismissed.

The evidence brought out that the pint of liquor which she was charged with possessing was found lying against a fence in her yard at a time when she was ill in bed.

D. G. Wettlin, Santa Ana attorney, represented Mrs. Addington. She was arrested several days ago.

Accident Victim Held On Charge Of Being Drunk

A Ruiz, Delhi Mexican, who was seriously injured almost a month ago when his automobile overturned on the Delhi road and who recently was discharged from the county hospital, will be forced to spend his convalescent days in the county jail.

Officers who rushed to the scene of the accident after it had been reported that a "dead" man was lying in the road, declared that Ruiz was drunk. When he was released from the hospital he was taken to jail on a drunk charge and this morning pleaded guilty.

Justice Morrison sentenced him to spend 30 days in the bastille.

CONFERENCE ON AERONAUTICS OPENED TODAY

By ROBERT MOOREFIELD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The world is looking forward to the day when extensive and reasonable safe intercontinental and interoceanic air transportation will become more firmly the bonds of international brotherhood. President Coolidge said in an address of welcome here today before the International Civil Aeronautics conference.

Fifty nations were represented at the conference, whose attention, the president pointed out, was to be directed to "the development of aeronautics as an aid to the peaceful pursuits of transportation of commerce and of trade."

"What the future holds out even the imagination may be inadequate to grasp," Mr. Coolidge said. "We may be sure, however, that the perfection and extension of air transport throughout the world will be of the utmost significance to civilization."

"While the primary aim of this industry is and will be commercial and economic and the prosperity of the world will be immeasurably advanced by it, indirectly, but no less surely, will the nations be drawn more closely together in bonds of amity and understanding."

Mr. Coolidge said the airways of the world today, which marked the first quarter century of the history of human flight, have a greater mileage than rail mileage in 1850, the twenty-first anniversary of the opening of the first railroad. He then launched into a discussion of the aid given aeronautics by the federal government.

"The aeronautics branch of our department of commerce is vigilant, resourceful and progressive. It has inaugurated a comprehensive system of regulation and control of aircraft manufacture as well as operation. Airways are laid out over the best flying country, and aids to flying, such as beacons and weather reports, are furnished. An air-information service is maintained and aeronautics research carried on through the bureau of standards. Valuable co-operation is rendered in the establishment and equipment of airports."

On October 1, the president said, further, 1387 ports were available for use of army, navy and civilian craft. Almost 900 more were in prospect, he said.

"Air transport means much to the United States, divided as it is in the west by lofty mountain ranges and deserts," Mr. Coolidge said. "In the early days it took six months to go from Missouri to the Pacific coast. An airplane has traveled across the continent in less than 24 hours. We are stretching out our arms through the air to Canada and to our other friends and neighbors in the south."

CASES RESTED BY BOTH SIDES IN DAMAGE SUIT

Both plaintiff and defendant had rested their cases today in the $50,000 damage suit under way in Superior Judge James L. Allen's court in which relatives of the late Fred William Byrd Jr., are seeking redress for his death, last July, when he is alleged to have been struck by a Pacific Electric company interurban car near Bayview station.

A motion for non-suit was argued in the morning session and a motion for an instructed verdict for the defendant was made. At 2 p. m., the hearing was to be continued.

Charles Butterworth, motorman of the car, testified yesterday and said that the view of the track was unobstructed for 1000 feet ahead as he approached Bayview station. His car was equipped with a headlight, he said. The defense had alleged that Byrd did not exercise ordinary caution before stepping onto the track.

Mrs. Eva Byrd, widow, of Long Beach; Fred William Byrd, Jr., and Mrs. Lela Byrd, parents of the deceased, residing in Hollywood, are plaintiffs in the action against the Pacific Electric company and Butterworth.

WATCH RECOVERED AFTER 24 YEARS

ST. PAUL, Dec. 11.—(UP)—Lost 24 years ago, a $400 diamond-studded gold watch was back in the possession of its owners here today and William Conway, pawnshop inspector, was hailed by his mates as the "man with the memory of an elephant."

Miss Eloise L. Callahan, now a business woman, lost the valuable little timepiece while on an excursion down the Mississippi river in 1904. She at once reported her loss to police but after a fruitless search the watch was forgotten by all save Conway.

The inspector while on his regular rounds of the pawnshops observed in the showcase of J. S. Samuelson a woman's watch with a diamond crescent on the back. He consulted his record book and confirmed his conviction that it was the watch lost 24 years before by Miss Callahan.

FIREMEN AND POLICE LOSE TO SPRINKLER

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 12.—(UP)—Heat from a defective pipe organ in a local theater set off an automatic fire alarm. Fortunately it occurred at an hour when the theater was "dark."

Several engine companies clanged up to the theater. In attempting to force their way into the building, firemen set off the burglar alarm. Three prowler cars filled with armed patrolmen arrived at the scene.

Together the firemen and the policemen crashed down a door and hurried into the theater. Hundreds of early risers thronged the street outside the show house.

An automatic sprinkling system started to function at this juncture, taking all honors for display. The slight blaze was extinguished, but the spectators who witnessed the action of the firemen, the policemen and the automatic sprinkler agreed it was "a swell show."

Hurts Suffered By Hillyard Not Believed Serious

The extent of injuries suffered by Warren K. Hillyard, county surveyor, yesterday afternoon, when the automobile he was driving collided with a Southern Pacific freight train at the Bush street crossing, had not been fully determined late today, but his hurts were not believed to be serious.

Several x-ray pictures of his left leg failed to reveal whether the limb was broken, it was said.

Maxine, five-year-old daughter of Hillyard, riding with her father at the time, suffered cuts and bruises of a minor nature, it was said.

Hillyard drove his car into the freight train as it was crossing the street, it was reported. He and his daughter are at their home at 1903 Bush street.

Shocked Pheasant Shatters Window

ROSEBURG, Ore., Dec. 12.—(UP)—A China pheasant, believed to have been dazed by a shock from an electric wire passing through the tree on which it roosted, crashed through a window of the home of Mrs. J. T. Bryan here.

The bird smashed the chandeliers in the room, overturned vases and finally made an exit through a large plate glass window.

The bird alighted on the lawn and later flew away when efforts were made to capture it.

As the result of a wasp sting, Mrs. Eliza East, the mother of six children under 15, died recently near Wheathampstead, England.

Use Vicks To Check Influenza

Flu Germs Are Breathed In; Inflamed Air Passages Make An Ideal Breeding Ground For These Germs.

KEEP AIR PASSAGES OPEN
While there is so much flu in the air it is wise to keep a jar of Vicks VapoRub handy and apply a little up the nostrils several times a day, especially before being exposed to crowds. It is also a good plan to melt some Vicks in a bowl of hot water night and morning and inhale the vapors.

Treat All Colds Promptly
At the first sign of a cold rub Vicks on the throat and chest, spread on thickly and cover with warm flannel cloth. Leave the clothing loose around neck so the vapors, released by the body heat, may be freely inhaled.

Acts 2 Ways at Once
These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication direct to the air passages all night long. At the same time, Vicks acts through the skin like a poultice, thus helping the inhaled vapors to relieve the congestion.

Avoids "Dosing" Children
Vicks is especially appreciated by mothers because it is externally applied and, therefore, cannot upset children's delicate digestion.

MOVE STARTED IN BRAZIL TO CONTROL BOOZE

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 12.—Brazil may forever reject the North American brand of prohibition but a movement for liquor control has been started and the country has just celebrated an anti-alcohol week with considerable vigor.

During the week conferences and lectures were held in the federal capital, and also in several of the States. This city and the famous beach at Copacabana were bombarded from the air with handbills promoting the cause of temperance.

Army planes were used for this bombardment, and one of the handbills scattered from the air read: "Aviators do not drink alcohol. Athletes do not drink alcohol. To be strong—shun alcohol."

At the opening of the anti-alcoholic week in one state capitol the governor said that steps would be taken to increase considerably the taxes on alcoholic drink, thus, he hoped, bringing about less drinking through the English method of high prices.

SPEEDER IS GIVEN FIVE DAYS IN JAIL

Merritt J. Thompson, Anaheim man, arrested on North Main street several days ago on a charge of driving his automobile 60 miles an hour in a 20-mile zone, pleaded guilty to the charge in Judge J. F. Talbot's court this morning and was sentenced to serve five days in the county jail. The arrest was made by Officer E. Lentz, of the city police.

IT HAPPENED!

SHELANDOAH, Pt., Dec. 12.—The crowd that gathered, at a safe distance, to watch a plane being hoisted to a third story window, was not disappointed. The unexpected happened for once, when the block and tackle failed and the instrument smashed to the street below.

HOBBO IS DETAINED FOR INVESTIGATION

The Orange county jail, with its steam heat and bunks, looks mighty good to the hobo these cold nights, but there was one hobo entered the jail last night, today wishes he hadn't.

A James Thompson, 19, is wanted in Oakland on a check charge and, while Herman Zabel, fingerprint expert, was going over the list of last night's visitors, he decided to hold Thompson for investigation.

HIGH SCHOOL AND JAYSEE NOTES

"Why Should I Vote?" has been chosen as the topic for an essay contest which is to be conducted in high schools, colleges and universities by the National Federation of Women's Clubs. It was announced today. Those desiring to enter the contest have until December 15 to submit their manuscripts. Final awards will be made no later than June, 1929, the announcement said. Awards will consist of $250 for the first prize, $150, second, and $100, third. Manuscripts are to be mailed to Mark Johnson, box 141, Newport Beach.

Raymond E. Davis, professor of civil engineering and chairman of the board of admissions of the University of California, in Berkeley, was a visitor at the junior college and high school here recently on a tour of inspection of such institutions to determine their general growth and development. Davis reported that the state university is contemplating a change in the rating system of high schools for standards of admission to make the system more intelligible to the general public.

A special invitation has been extended Santa Ana junior college students to attend "If I Were King," the play of the sophomore class of Fullerton Junior college, which is to be produced on December 14 in the Mission Court theater, Fullerton.

The regular Friday assembly will be omitted this week to avoid crowds because of the "flu" epidemic, according to information released today.

Individual and group pictures of the high school football teams were taken this week for the Ariel, annual year book. Pictures of the first semester class officers and the Generator and Ariel staffs are scheduled to be made immediately after Christmas vacation.

The annual high school French club party will be held on the night of December 17. A quaint program has been arranged, according to the president of that organization. The party will be held in the home of Tilen Schneble, 733 Cypress avenue.

Pipeline Hearing To Be Resumed At Next Board Meet

Hearings by the board of supervisors in connection with the franchise granted to the Santa Fe Springs Waste Water Disposal company for a pipe line through Orange county to the coast near Seal Beach will be resumed at the session next Tuesday, according to a decision reached at yesterday's session.

Inclusion of the right for the company to build a subsidiary line on Orangecorpe avenue was the subject on which there was partial disagreement at last week's session. The board stated that it was not in favor of including Orangecorpe avenue in the franchise, although the company's representatives contended that this street had been included in the original plans presented.

By mutual agreement it was arranged to have this line omitted and final action on the matter is expected within a short time.

Court Notes

Asserting that her husband, Russell A. Rose, has failed to provide for her and their minor child, Mrs. Elsie H. Rose today brought suit for divorce. Rose is a pipe fitter, residing near Oceanside, the complaint said. They were married in 1926, in Riverside, and separated Oct. 20, 1928, the complaint said. Mrs. Rose asked the court to order Rose to provide support for her and the child.

A bench warrant for the arrest of Straud Powelson was issued in superior court today. According to Probation Officer L. A. Warren, Powelson has failed to comply with a court order instructing him to pay $25 a month to the probation office for the support of a minor child. He was convicted on a charge of non-support and was given probation for a year last September on condition that he make the monthly payments.

Asserting that her husband had threatened her with a gun and had chased her out of their home in her night attire on November 14, Mary Lopez today had brought suit for divorce against Salvador Lopez. The complaint said that Lopez had tried to kill his wife by choking her on April 30 and that at another time he had hit her over the head with a stick. They were married in 1922 and separated November 15, the complaint stated.

FIRST AID TO COPS

MT. CARMEL, Pa., Dec. 12.—UP)—A burglar made it easy for police to trail him when he attempted a robbery at the home of Dr. R. E. Bast, in Kulpmont, near here. The robber got away with $105 in cash but he dropped his key-ring. On the ring police found the name and address of the robber. He was taken into custody and the money recovered.

DISMISSES PETITION FOR HABEAS CORPUS

Superior Judge H. G. Ames today dismissed a petition of Gordon Padfield for a writ of habeas corpus. Padfield is wanted in Arizona for alleged failure to support a minor child.

He is in the county jail, where he is being held for Arizona authorities. Arrangements for extradition are said to be under way in Sacramento. Judge Ames set bail in the amount of $2000, which Padfield was unable to make.

A fugitive warrant has been issued for his arrest by Arizona authorities.

Anaheim Center Seeking 100 Per Cent Member Gain

Membership in the Anaheim Farm center will take a jump of 100 per cent within the next few days if a resolution passed at last night's session results in successful action in the membership drive now being carried on throughout the county.

Each member last night pledged himself, through the resolution, to secure a new member for the organization in Anaheim. The present list includes approximately 150 names and the group has gone out to gain 150 more.

Present officers of the organization were returned for another year at last night's session. Plans for the January session were being made today and it was announced that Charles Eggabroad, of Anaheim, would give a talk recalling experiences on a trip to Alaska.

STUDENTS WILL NOT HAVE TO MAKE UP TIME

School children of Santa Ana were greeted today with the news that they will not be required to make up the time lost during the recent "flu" vacation. On the other hand, they will be expected to make up the work missed. This decision was made by the board of education last night on the recommendation of J. A. Cranston, superintendent of schools. Cranston pointed out that, even without making up the time, the schools will be in session 176 days, while the law requires only 170 days of operation. No state money will be lost by the decision, it was declared.

Cranston stated absences in the schools yesterday were 8.8 per cent of the average daily attendance. The day before Thanksgiving the absence figure was 19.5 per cent, he said.

NO DAMAGE AS TEMPERATURE TAKES TUMBLE

With a temperature of 35 degrees around 6 o'clock this morning, residents of this community were given warning that the cold weather period is approaching.

The temperature did not drop enough to do serious damage even to tender vegetation and citrus growers were not alarmed in this district, although it is reported that in some other districts in the Southland smudge pots were started as the mercury threatened to approach the danger point.

According to Harold Wahlberg, county farm advisor, testing of new smudge plants in this vicinity has been in progress for the last week. It is said that new equipment has been installed in a number of orchards.

The California Canning corporation has completed the packing season at its big plant on East First street, operations closing earlier than in past years by reason of the fact that fields of chili peppers and pimientos under contract to the corporation have been gleaned. Earlier planting and earlier ripening of the vegetables made possible the situation of the big plant closing before the usual time around the middle of December.

According to Cecil Wilson, office manager for the corporation, the pack of 5,625,000 cans this season is equal to those of the last two or three seasons, despite the shorter period of operation.

SEAL BEACH

SEAL BEACH, Dec. 12.—Walker Snider and little son, Earl are victims of an attack of influenza. Miss Elizabeth Snider will return from college at Stockton Saturday to spend the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Eaton are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Collins.

The first of a series of Christmas services at the Community Methodist church will be held Sunday evening December 16 at which time the Christmas story will be told by means of beautifully colored lantern slides. An illustrated song, "Angels From the Realms of Glory," will conclude the service.

Judge J. C. Ord's illness continues and a trained nurse has been called from Long Beach to care for him.

The vacation which Miss Elsie McClelland spent in Silverado canyon had an unhappy ending when she developed a severe attack of poison oak.

Mrs. Ira Patterson is confined to her home suffering from an attack of influenza.

MAN CLAIMING HE'S COUSIN OF HOOVER IS JAILED HERE

Two men, one of whom claimed to be a cousin of Herbert Hoover, were arrested early last night after the automobile in which they were riding collided with a truck and trailer, loaded with cows, at the intersection of the Talbert road and the Huntington Beach boulevard.

James Hoover, 55, Hermosa Beach, was lodged in the county jail, charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, and his companion, Tom Ward, 58, of Huntington Beach, is being held on a drunk charge.

The arrests were made by Officers F. W. Howard, Humiston and Mozley, of the sheriff's forces, who answered a call to the scene of the wreck.

Hoover drove his car into the side of the trailer and truck, according to a statement made by Howard.

Both men will be taken before Justice Kenneth Morrison today for hearings. The automobile was badly damaged, but neither of its occupants was hurt.

R. Y. Williams Named To First National Board

R. Y. Williams, former judge of the Orange county superior court and one of the leading attorneys of the county, yesterday afternoon was elected to the board of directors of the First National bank to succeed the late W. A. Huff. The election was made at a regular meeting of the board of directors.

SPRINGDALE

SPRINGDALE, Dec. 12.—Mrs. J. J. Graham was the honoree at an anniversary dinner given Sunday, in honor of her birthday. Her daughter, Mrs. Virgil Lyons and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Graham, were co-hostesses on the occasion and the dinner was held at Puente at the Lyons home.

Covers were laid for ten at the prettily appointed dinner table, those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham and two sons of Springdale, Virgil Lyons sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lyons jr., and daughter, of Puente.

Word received by Mrs. Charles Wentzel from her husband who is at the former Wentzel home at Clearfield, Iowa, relates that there is thirty inches of snow on the ground and that the weather is cold. Wentzel left recently for the east.

Mrs. Eliza Prettyman and son, Frank Prettyman, Miss Mary Philpot, and their cousin, Bert Verdon, of Iowa, were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberson.

Albert Wallethe and W. Plausse and small daughter, have been ill with influenza this week. Mrs. Wm. Kettler, who has been ill about ten days has not yet recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gerhart, of El Monte visited Sunday with the former's uncle, George Gerhart, of this place.

County Will Not Allow Service To Gambling Vessel

Operators of motor boats carrying passengers between Long Beach and the gambling ship Malfalcone, anchored about seven miles off shore from the Orange and Los Angeles coastlines, will find no encouragement in Orange county coastline cities should they attempt to defeat the purposes of ordinances passed by Long Beach to prevent transportation of passengers to the boat.

This opinion was expressed today by District Attorney Z. B. West, who said that in event an attempt is made to operate from Orange county points he would request municipalities to adopt ordinances similar to those passed by the Long Beach city council.

Disabled Veterans Will Meet Tonight

Jack Fisher, commander, announced today that chapter 23, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, would meet in the American Legion hall at 8 p. m., for a regular business session. Preceding this meeting, the executive committee will meet at 7:15 p. m. Fisher said. After the general session a Dutch lunch will be served by Paul Cassidy.

Editor Register:

As there is a question before the authorities, to decide upon a location for the new post office, I take the privilege of commending the party who first recommended Birch Park.

I believe it is a finer and much better location than any so far suggested. If there was a beautiful building in the park it would be "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

Santa Ana is one of the nice little cities of the South and she has a number of attractions that belong to her alone. There can be an added attraction in the shape of a government building in the center of the park, and there is nothing that would give her a wider and more favorable mention.

Another advantage in favor of this proposition is the fact that the money which would be used in buying a site for the new building might be used in buying another acreage for a park.

Yours truly,

DEER FATALITIES

BARABOO, Wis., Dec. 12.—(UP)—Fiction has it that the deer is a speedy animal but during the past three months motorists have run down and killed two large bucks in this vicinity. In one instance more than $100 damage was done to the automobile. The animal weighed over 250 pounds and carried seven pronged antlers. Both accidents occurred near the Wisconsin Dells, noted for the rugged wildness of its terrain.

PATRON SAINT IS HONORED IN MEXICAN RITES

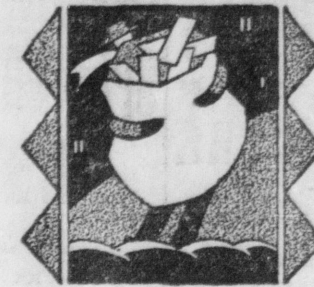

The Mexican Catholic church in Delhi celebrated the Feast of Guadalupe today with the observance opening with masses at 7 and 8 a. m. The Rev. Jose Origel, priest in charge of the parish, said the masses.

Rosary services are scheduled for 5 p. m., to be followed by a program appropriate to services in memory of Mexico's patron saint. It was pointed out here today by a Mexican that the Shrine of Guadalupe, with its spring of healing waters, is on the outskirts of Mexico City and that pilgrimages are made from distant points by thousands of persons on this day. He said that in former years masses were said throughout the day and that an average of 200,000 persons formerly went there to pray for healing.

Services no longer are held there, but thousands still go to the shrine to make their petitions, he said.

WINTER SPORTS UNDER WAY AT YOSEMITE PARK

YOSEMITE, Dec. 12. — Winter sports were formally inaugurated here last week and when both toboggans were officially declared ready for the 1928-29 season by Acting Superintendent E. P. Leavitt and E. Des Ballets, winter sports director for Yosemite National Park.

The half-mile track was found to be in very good condition, with the toboggan parties making a speed up to forty miles an hour on the great slide. Neighboring "Ash Can Alley," featuring the use of ash can lids as a means of sliding down the long icy track, was found to be perfect. The National Park Service has made extensive improvements on "Ash Can Alley" by building a high curved bank to prevent sliders from flying the track. Park rangers in charge of the slide have made every effort to provide a thrilling sport that is safe for all ages.

Ash can lids were first suggested by Assistant Director Horace M. Albright, during a visit to Yosemite last winter. Now the fame of the local "Ash Can Alley" has spread far and wide with inquiries coming from all parts of the United States requesting information on how to transform a lowly ash can lid into a toboggan.

AND THE WAR'S OVER
SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Dec. 12.—There was quite a flurry in the post office here when a letter addressed to "William Shakespeare, Stratford-on-Avon, England, Europe" was returned to the dead letter office marked, "Deceased, 23 April, 1616." 'Tis said three postmen actually tried to deliver it.

Simple Way to Be Rid of Gas

PEOPLE who belch after eating may not realize that the cause is excessive gastric acid. Or may not have been told how easily this may be remedied. Quick and complete relief can be obtained by taking a little "Pape's Diapiesin" after eating or when pain is felt. Remember this for your comfort, and lest that constant gas on the stomach does not drift into gastritis!

"Pape's Diapiesin" instantly neutralizes the excess stomach acid and soothes, heals and strengthens the inflamed stomach lining, thus promoting normal, painless digestion and helping to prevent future trouble.

For many years millions have used and recommended "Pape's Diapiesin" for the speedy and sure relief of indigestion and allied stomach troubles. Follow their example! Get a 60-cent package of "Pape's Diapiesin" from any druggist; no matter how severe your stomach, troubles you will get relief.

Many Orange county residents are using the new fishing pier at San Clemente, recently completed at a cost of $75,000. The pier extends out 1200 feet. A fishing boat operates from the pier.

TREASURE SHIP AGAIN SOUGHT BY LONDONERS

LONDON, Dec. 12.—The fascinating mystery of the ancient Spanish galleon Almirante de Florencia, which sank in Tiberia bay in 1558, is to be probed once more. Another expedition has been formed here to determine, if possible, whether the old ship actually was treasure laden, as commonly supposed.

The small private party which will make the search for the treasure will be led by Colonel K. N. Foss, now past 70 years of age. Financial and personal support will be given by Lady Edith Fox-Pitt, daughter of Sybil Marchioness of Queensberry, and Mrs. Margaret Leash, the wife of a retired naval officer.

According to Lady Fox-Pitt, diving operations should be started almost immediately if conditions remain favorable, and it should be apparent by Christmas whether the strong rooms of the Florencia are actually packed with Spanish bullion. Attempts to wrest the secret of the Almirante were carried on early last spring by Captain Streetfield, Conservative M. P. for Alloway, who began diving operations.

SAVED BY A TAIL
TUCKAHOE, N. Y., Dec. 12.—Patsy Salvatore's dog was scheduled for execution. Authorities had caught him without muzzle and license. But Patsy couldn't see it that way. He reached into the death chamber and yanked his pet out by the tail. Then he was permitted to keep the pup on his mother's promise to secure a muzzle and license.

Ex-Governor Of State Approves Death Penalty

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 12.—(UP)—Ex-Governor Friend W. Richardson still believes in capital punishment, despite the campaign being waged by his son-in-law, Frank J. Smith, former San Quentin warden, to abolish the death penalty.

Richardson, who turned a deaf ear to probably more pleas of condemned murderers than any man in the governor's chair, reaffirmed his stand during a visit to Sacramento this week.

"We have some very bad criminals in California," said Richardson, "and I believe that capital punishment, when decreed by the courts after a fair trial, is the best deterrent to murder."

CHILD DIES, SISTER HURT IN EXPLOSION

NAMPA, Idaho, Dec. 12.—(UP)—A four-year-old girl was killed, her sister injured seriously and 10 other members of the family of W. R. Goodwin narrowly escaped death when Goodwin attempted to fill a lighted lantern with gasoline.

An explosion shook the Goodwin home and flames enveloped the 10 children, all of whom except Verda, 4, and Vera, 6, were able to extinguish the flames. Verda died here in a hospital and little hope was held out today for the life of Vera.

EFFICIENCY
PARIS, Dec. 12.—Everything is getting "efficiencyized" here. In order to save time, bus steps have been lowered 12 inches. Imagine the steps you had to take to get into one of these busses.

SOVIET PARTY IN RUSSIA IS IN MINORITY

MOSCOW, Dec. 12.—The communist party continues to grow, but it still has less than 1 per cent of the population of Russia on its rolls. The party members, however, rule everything and every one in Russia, from the government down through all the industries, even to the house committees, which regulate the home life of crowded apartment dwellers.

The higher one goes toward the source of authority in this country, no matter what the institution, the greater the percentage of communists he will find. At the top there are none but party members. Communism on July 1 embraced 1,418,060 men and women ranked as "regular members." Their number had increased in six months by 113,539, or almost 9 per cent. In addition, there are tens of thousands of candidates who are on probation for two and three years, and a host of boys and girls who hope to become communists when they attain their majority.

City workers make up the bulk of the party membership, but it was officially announced in November that 127,579 communists were actually engaged in farm work, with 34,454 others dividing their time between agriculture and political activities.

MODEL TONNERVILLE

TENNIS HELPS KAISER ENJOY LIFE IN EXILE

EDITOR'S NOTE—In the ten years since the ex-Kaiser of Germany went into exile in Holland there has been very little reliable information regarding his activities.

As is well known, the ex-Kaiser has consistently refused interviews to newspapers and few journalists have even seen the ex-Kaiser at a distance.

H. C. Buurman, United Press Staff correspondent, writer of this, the first of a series of four articles, is a native of Doorn and lived there much of his life. He was the only journalist to witness the arrival of the ex-Emperor of Germany at Amerongen in 1918 when he first reached Holland. He has seen the ex-Kaiser at close quarters in 1918, 1922, 1923, 1924 and 1928, and has had excellent opportunities to obtain reliable information regarding the life of Wilhelm II.

ARTICLE ONE

By H. C. BUURMAN

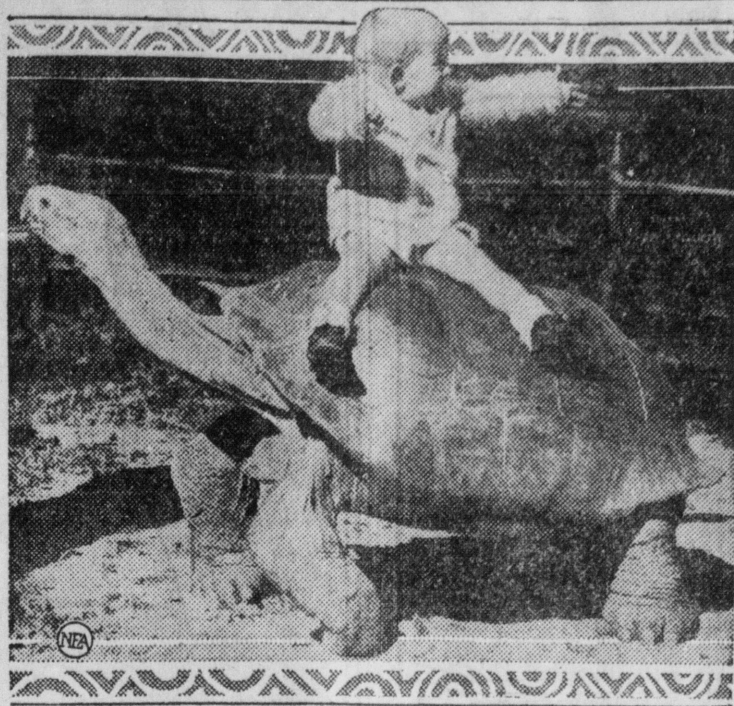

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
DOORN, Holland, Dec. 12.—(UP)—His slightest wish was law to millions. He was chief of the greatest military force any nation ever assembled. His activities were important news to the entire world. His actions affected hundreds of millions in every part of the globe. He was His Imperial Majesty, Wilhelm II, Emperor of Germany. That was a little more than ten years ago.

Today it is different. The ex-Kaiser still maintains his right to his old imperial titles. He still maintains a little "court" of about a dozen persons. He still receives delegations, deputations, high authorities and discusses important matters . . . Important to Wilhelm. Sometimes he rages, sometimes he denounces, he sends telegrams to German organizations denouncing or praising their activities.

But today the world, and Germany and Holland and Doorn, the somnolent village where he lives, refuse to regard his actions as important.

"The ex-kaiser plays tennis."

Summed up, that is the news that Doorn offers about the gray man who was one of the great rulers of the world only a decade ago. It seems cruelly simple. But in a canvass of scores of persons in Doorn for news the invariable response is: "There is no news. Everything is very quiet. Oh yes, wait, he plays tennis now . . ."

At the back of the castle grounds, more or less hidden from the public eye, tennis courts have been laid out. From time to time the ex-kaiser joins his wife and guests to make up a doubles match and plays with all the seriousness that marks the man. He cannot take the game lightly. On account of his crippled left arm the ex-kaiser cannot serve. His only stroke is a simple, powerful chop with his muscular right arm. He frequently smiles with a mixture of forbearance and good humor and with his white hair and eyelids heard he makes a striking picture as he leaps around behind the net.

Varied Activities

Were the ex-kaiser to describe his own activities he would undoubtedly mention many things which are important to him but he would probably omit to mention tennis which seems to be most important to Doorn. He would probably mention the thousands of trees he has cut down and sawed since his exile in Doorn. Perhaps he would mention the Rosarium, an ornamental rose garden, which he planned, laid out and presented to the citizens of Doorn. He might mention the many visits he has received from delegations from German patriotic organizations, and from high German and Dutch authorities.

Undoubtedly the ex-kaiser would mention how deeply he has been hurt by the publication by the Englishman, Sir Frederick Ponsonby, of the letter to the ex-kaiser's mother wrote to Queen Victoria. Sir Frederick Ponsonby was private secretary to the late Empress Frederick. Before her death he smuggled out of Germany her letters to Victoria, her mother, in suitcases marked "china."

The letters contained strong criticism of the ex-kaiser. On one occasion his mother's letter to Victoria said "Wilhelm is as blind and green, wrong-headed and violent on politics as he can be."

Despite the efforts of journalists from many countries to draw a command from the ex-kaiser regarding Ponsonby's publication of the letters, he has maintained silence.

Kaiser's Views

However, through the courtesy of Doctor Kurt Jagow, the master of rolls in his majesty's household, the United Press is able to present a statement which can be taken as an actual reflection of the ex-kaiser's views.

"His majesty has forbidden all who are near him to say anything whatever against his mother's letters," said Doctor Jagow. "The question of the letters is of great importance to the emperor. The letters came into the possession of Sir Frederick Ponsonby just before his mother's death without any further indication as to what he was to do with them. Sir Frederick says in the introduction that he has tried for 27 years to decide what the empress meant when she handed over the letters. He came to the conclusion that she apparently meant that he should publish them. There is nothing to prove that views are right and one must be allowed to doubt their correctness. Yet it is possible he is right."

"However, if the empress Frederick could have known that the throne would fall to pieces and that her son would be compelled to live in exile, does Sir Frederick really believe that she would have allowed the publication in such circumstances and at such a time?"

"We Germans have too much of an opinion of the former English Princess. We know, too, that according to an expression used by King Edward she was thought to be 'too German' in England. She would therefore, never have done this to her son, a German emperor fallen into misfortune. She as a mother would never have done this to her son."

ELECTRIC CHAIR FOR HEALTH

LONDON, Dec. 12.—(UP)—A new use for the electric chair has been found. Instead of curtailing life it can now be used to extend it.

Such a chair was shown at the New Health exhibition at the Royal Horticultural Hall, Westminster, recently.

Its object is to assist in the fashionable cult of the day by making women slimmer. It is claimed that ten minutes of its vibratory massage is the equivalent of an hour's horse riding or some other strenuous exercise.

EXCAVATORS FIND OLD ROMAN ROAD

NAPLES, Dec. 12.—The ancient Roman road, built by the Emperor Domitian, traces of which were found during recent land reclaiming operations near Litterno, anciently known as Litternum, has been laid bare for a distance of 400 yards near the village of Varcatura.

The ancient road, built in the first century of our era, is in excellent state of preservation, and follows the usual system of large stones of circular and oblong shapes pressed into the ground.

The road in the section excavated measures between four and a half to five yards wide, and was constructed to allow the passage of two lines of traffic in opposite directions.

Blocks of Vesuvian stone run along the road at intervals of ten yards on either side. They are a couple of feet high and of triangular form.

NEW BOOKS IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Would you like to discover the answer to the age-old question, What am I? In "Behind Your Front," by James Oppenheim, we not only find a new and surprising picture of ourselves, but there is a psycho-analytical picture gallery of notable people from Charles Chaplin to H. L. Mencken. Here we find Ramon Navarro belonging to the intuition with feeling type; John Barrymore to the intuition with thinking; John Gilbert to the sensation with feeling; Gene Tunney to the sensation with thinking.

In playing this book (for that is the way to read it) one is given a new idea of his possibilities. Then if he has a lively mind, he can use this book as a sort of X-ray on his friends for their amusement and instruction, as he views their skeletons through their trappings of flesh.

New Adventure
This book is an adventure into new lands, where the sun has just risen and the air has a nip of discovery in it. Few in this country have yet had brought home to them, the amazing scientific discoveries of Dr. Carl Jung of Zurich. It is his elaboration of the type theory which is the basis of this entertaining and informing book.

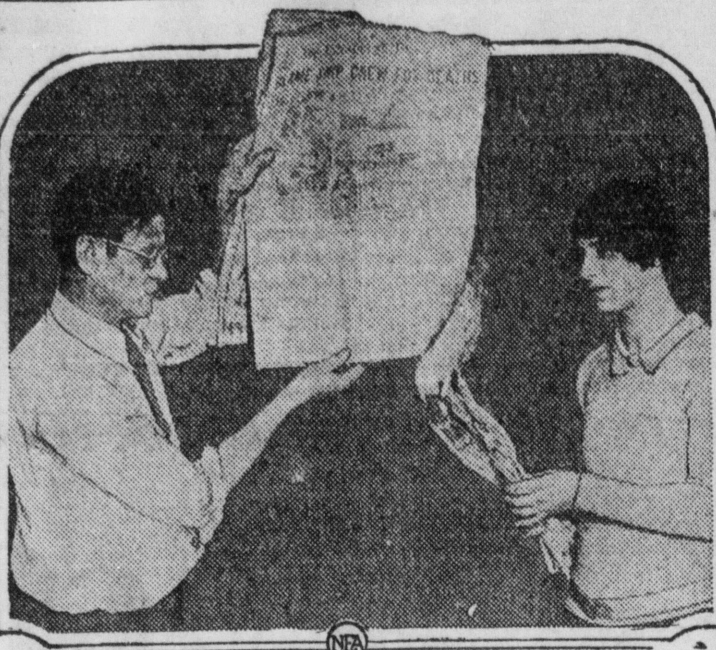

Even if you can not successfully place yourself, you will find it a fascinating account of some of the newer principles of psycho-analysis.

One of the most interesting personalities of history is made known to us in "Tamerlane" by Harold Lamb. Tamerlane he was and only as Tamerlane he is known today. In our general histories, his empire is called only Tamerlane's. Vaguely he is known as a dominant and merciless figure, moving beyond the gates of Europe among golden tents and towers built of human skulls lighted at night by spirit beacons.

Such a figure as this has, of

MAKES ANYTHING FIREPROOF

F. W. Hochstetter, a Pittsburgh scientist, has announced that he has perfected a solution by which clothing, paper or any material can be made fireproof by merely treating the material therewith. He is shown here demonstrating his invention with a newspaper, previously treated, which refuses to burn.

course, inflamed the imagination of poets. In fact, to many of us he is familiar only through Marlowe's drama, where the only resemblance to the true character is in the unbreakable will power and the love of magnificence. A reflection of the legendary Tamerlane is Milton's Satan—the great trumpets summoning the armed host of battle, the upraised standards, the marshalled battalions of the powers of darkness at the gates of paradise, and all the contemporary imagery of oriental splendor.

Veil Is Penetrated
The fantasies of the poets have been followed by the silence of the historians. We know the setting of the European scene of that century, but not the man who rose to dominate the world. To understand what he attempted, we must look at the man as he lived. In this book we penetrate the veil of terror and go beyond the towers of human skulls, past Constantinople, and over the sea into Asia,—along the highway of the Land of the Sun, on the road to Samarkand.

A unique method of becoming acquainted with our ancestors is suggested by Alice Van Leer Carrick in "Shades of Our Ancestors". By studying the exquisite profiles which she shows us, we not only experience keen artistic enjoyment, but we are given a knowledge of custom and costume of bygone days.

There have been many more good profiles in America than most of us realize. Such names as Baches, Brown, Day, Peale, Williams, Doyle, King, Jones, represent many eloquent busts or full length figures.

Among these indelible portraits of our earlier countrymen and women, we find such figures as pretty Clarissa Gardiner with her slender sweetness; a young man whom the author calls the "Matti-neo Idol" with his fine disdainful profile; Republican dandies with their green coats and white waistcoats, and in their amazing collars and huge cravats; their feminine counterparts in muslin gowns slit long to show trim buskins, dainty flowers sprigging their caps and headresses; and lovely little Rebecca Greenleaf, a bluish-gray shadow portrait painted upon an oval of ivory.

Shadows Come Alive
Minuets and bustles belong to another age, but reading this book and looking at the profiles exhibited makes the shadows of the past—your ancestors and mine—come alive. We see how they ate and drank and dressed and thought and amused themselves. It is a most agreeable way of learning history.

Among the new books at the library are:

Benet, S.—John Brown's Body.
Bikle, L. L. C.—George W. Cable. His Life and Letters.

The Food Question

Wholesome Food for Sturdy Families

By Isabel Allobach

Home Service Department—SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS CO.

DIGESTIBILITY OF WHITE FLOUR

Our susceptibility to "advice" often leads us into trouble. A "remedy" for headaches, offered by some well-meaning friend, may lead to serious consequences—as some of us have learned—to the extent of much needless suffering and expense.

The craze for whole wheat flour and similar cereal products long since has exceeded the bounds of reason and common sense. Indeed, in many cases, the ill-advised use of bran and whole wheat products has increased a minor physical condition to serious illness, since, under certain conditions, bran—in its various forms—acts as an irritant to the intestinal tract.

The "food faddists" have become such a serious menace to the health of American families through their advocacy of bran, that the Kansas Medical Society recently adopted a strong resolution on this subject. While setting forth that neither white flour or whole wheat flour is balanced food,—since neither contains ALL the elements needed for the human body,—and for that matter, no single item of food contains all the food elements needed by the human body,—the medical society went on to say, "The bran fad of the present day undoubtedly is overdone and much harm has been caused to those with weak digestive tracts by eating large quantities of coarse irritants such as bran. Bulk for bulk, white flour yields more calories than any other form of carbohydrate in daily use and should be looked upon as the best and cheapest form of energy food."

Such a noted authority as E. V. McCollum, Ph. D. Sc. D. Professor of Chemical Hygiene at Johns Hopkins University, says, "In point of quantities consumed, white flour is the most important energy food in America and Europe. The proteins of wheat are a little more efficient for the promotion of growth than are the same amount of proteins from milk and eggs."

The U. S. Department of Agriculture tells us that "white bread is more easily digested and more readily assimilated than whole wheat or graham breads."

Muffins, fresh from the oven, add much to the effectiveness of any breakfast. And they may be stirred up in a few moments and baked while the table is being set, and the remainder of the breakfast placed on the table. Certainly a plate of delicious muffins, fresh from the oven, adds much to the enjoyment of the morning meal. Modern women appreciate the value of a warm breakfast, in helping the entire family to start the day right.

Here is one of my favorite muffin recipes—which I have used often with unflinching success with Globe A-1 Flour:

BREAKFAST MUFFINS

|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| 2 cups Globe A-1 Flour    | 1 egg.                   |
| ½ Teaspoon salt.          | 2 Tablespoons salad oil. |
| 3 Teaspoons Baking Powder | 2 cup milk.              |
| 1 Tablespoon Sugar        |                          |

Sift the flour, measure and sift again with the salt, sugar and baking powder. Beat the egg until light, add the salad oil and beat until blended with the egg, add the milk, then pour the liquid mixture slowly into the flour mixture, folding ingredients together while doing so. Beat the batter until smooth, pour into well greased muffin tins, filling them two-thirds full and bake in a quick oven 15 to 20 minutes. Melted butter may be used instead of salad oil if preferred.

The utilities of a city are combined in your motor car

YOUR automobile is something like a miniature city. There is an electric light and power system, a water system, a fuel system.

In the new Ford, you will find each of these systems of the latest design and built of the best materials. Every part has been made to serve you faithfully and well and at a minimum of trouble and expense.

Take, for example, the generator—one of the most important parts of the electrical system which supplies the current for lighting and for engine ignition.

In the new Ford, the generator is of the power-house type and is distinctive in many features. It has been specially designed to prevent most forms of trouble. Oiling is necessary only once a year. About the only thing you need do is to have the charging rate changed as the seasons change.

Closely allied to the electrical system is the ignition system. It, too, is of new mechanical design in the new Ford. There is but one high tension cable and that connects the coil with the distributor. Even cables from the distributor to the spark plugs have been eliminated. Special care has also been taken to make the distributor water-proof, thus preventing short circuits from rain, etc.

The electrical and ignition systems of the new Ford are so simple in design and so carefully made that they will give you surprisingly little trouble. Yet that doesn't mean they should be neglected. Certain little attentions are needed from time to time.

The storage battery should be given water and the connections kept clean. The generator charging rate should be changed as indicated. Spark plugs should be cleaned at regular intervals. Distributor points should also be kept clean, and the distributor cam given a light film of vaseline every 2000 miles.

These are just little things, but they mean a great deal to your car. You can have them looked after at very small cost by the Ford dealer when you take the car in for oiling and greasing.

A thorough checking-up at regular intervals will lengthen the life of your car and give you many thousands of miles of care-free, economical motoring.

The mileage you get from a tire isn't determined by the amount of skill and care employed in engraving its guarantee. Experienced workmen, carefully selected material, modern machinery and intelligent inspection and supervision—these are responsible.

A million mileage guarantees won't make a tire wear better. Remember this when you buy tires.

You'll save money and trouble by investing in Goodyears. More people ride on them today than on any other kind and this has been true for the past eleven years. Isn't that one fact alone a sufficient guarantee to their quality? Isn't it proof enough for you to use them too?

They cost no more than ordinary tires.

CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
Full of Vitamins, Should Be Eaten Daily, Says Doctor

Dr. Morris Fishbein, Editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, recently wrote in the New York Telegram about canned fruits and vegetables. If all of the women could read this article, more canning factories would have to be built in a hurry.

He makes this startling statement: "Canned tomatoes, and canned spinach have been tested three years after canning and the evidence did not indicate any appreciable loss in vitamins. Indeed, the canned tomatoes after three years were as rich in vitamins as raw tomatoes. Canned strawberries were also found to equal raw strawberries in vitamin content." He describes how canned cabbage, peas, spinach, apples and peaches were shown to be rich in Vitamin C.

Just think what wonderful news this is for all of us in this country where canning has been developed to such a point of perfection that we can buy canned almost any fruit or vegetable that is grown.

Serve your family liberally with canned fruits for breakfast and for dessert, and serve them liberally with canned vegetables and fruits for luncheon and dinner. Canned peaches, apricots, apples, pears, or strawberries are delicious served with cereals for breakfast and with ice cream for dessert. There is health in delicious canned fruits and vegetables. Sweeten the vegetables to taste when preparing them for serving. The Sugar Institute.

and the dog tax. O, how I hate to get up in the morning!

"OTHER WOMAN" IS BLAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT.—Register headline. I wonder if they think that's NEWS!

We've always wondered why they named it "Midway City." A drive over there will convince you of the logic of it. It's midway between the billboards on West Fifth street, Santa Ana, and those going into Westminster from the east.

Our good friend, Dr. Frank Dowling, delivered a speech on peace at Orange last week. Orange is just as good a place to deliver a speech on peace as anywhere else, Doctor.

Speaking of knowing Orange county, how many of you know that Dana Point is the place where Richard Henry Dana threw hides over the cliff and down to the ship in the year eighteen hundred and thirty something? And how many people have read "Two Beers Before The Last?"

We'll give the first dollar to match the half million that probably will be necessary to establish a state park at Laguna Beach under the new state parks bond amendment.

The whole of Orange county could be a park itself if we had a county planning commission, and take out the billboards and signs tacked on trees and fence posts, and line the highways with trees in the open spaces, and fix up the county fair grounds to look like a county community center, and keep the high-brows from fencing off the beaches, and give cyanide gas to anybody who doesn't believe in boosting ALL of Orange county as well as his own local community.

Change In Baseball Rules Proposed

10 PLAYERS TO SIDE IS URGED BY N. L. PREXY

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Alteration in the baseball rules to provide for a team of 10 men instead of the regulation nine has been suggested by President Heydler and approved by the National League.

Under Heydler's plan the tenth man would bat and run for the pitcher but would take no part in the fielding of his team. Managers would be required to submit the name of the tenth man to the umpire along with the regulation lineup before each game and the player would be available as a pinch-hitter for the pitcher any or each time the latter came to bat.

In suggesting the change, President Heydler said he believed such a rule would:

- (1) Prevent pitcher's battles and close games from being spoiled by taking a pitcher out for a pinch-hitter.
- (2) Shorten the playing time.
- (3) Put more initiative in the game and live it up.

"Too many games nowadays are being spoiled by taking out a pitcher who is going good for a pinch-hitter in a close game," Heydler said.

"Pitchers are absolutely useless as batters and they delay the game by not being ready to bat promptly. Many times the seventh and eighth man in the batting order are walked to get to the pitcher and the games are prolonged."

The suggested change is the most drastic since the foul strike rule was adopted many years ago and would revolutionize one of the paramount rules of baseball which states that "in no case shall more or less than nine men on each side be allowed to play at one time as regular players."

Uhle Traded To Detroit; Legion Aided

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—The opening session of the annual meeting of American league magnates and managers here was not a total loss, a casual review of the minutes reveals today.

One trade was made, the junior circuit subscribed to the idea of donating $25,000 to the American Legion plan of fostering juvenile baseball, the magnates kissed each other on the off cheek and adjourned to gather on the next day.

The White Sox thought they had a chance for Uhle. However, when Detroit offered a non-hitting infielder and a so-so pitcher, in the persons of Jack Tavenor and Ken Holloway, Uhle went to Detroit.

LA SALLE AND THOMAS CLASH HERE TONIGHT

BY RINGSIDER

Three of the four most interesting boxing persons who have appeared before Orange County Athletic club "members" will have prominent places on the new Delhi club's card tonight.

Zenaydo Chavez is the Henry Foust team's ace, of course, and the Santa Ana whirlwind will not be with the boys this week since he boxes a main event at Anaheim Friday with Eddie Benson, but the next three ranking favorites, at least the boys who have shown the most "pulling power," are on the current program.

Richie Thomas, who beat the man who holds the Western Amateur Athletic club's lightweight championship belt, is listed for the main event. This care-free, happy-go-lucky chap meets "Little" Bobby La Salle, brother of "Bad Boy" Bobby La Salle, darling of Wilmington fight crowds.

Young La Salle intends to turn pro after a couple more amateur starts here, it is understood. His

Dartmouth Trojan Foe Next Year?

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—Gwynn Wilson, athletic manager for the University of Southern California, today was reported to have signed Dartmouth for a game in Los Angeles in 1930. The Hanover college, it is understood, did not ask for a return game.

It was also learned from Howard Jones, Trojan coach, that U. S. C. and Notre Dame plan to sign a five-year agreement when their present contract expires next year.

Southern California and Carnegie Tech, both conquerors of Notre Dame this season, will meet here December 14 for the last game of the 1929 football schedule of the Trojans. The announcement was made by Arnold Eddy, assistant general manager of U. S. C., following receipt of a telegram from General Manager Gwynn Wilson, who is in Chicago.

All-East Eleven Awaits Practice At Northwestern

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—The All-Eastern eleven, scheduled to meet an All-Western eleven in San Francisco December 29, will assemble at Northwestern university stadium next Saturday for three hours of practice.

The 20 football players, representing the East and Middle West, will leave for the coast Saturday night, where final drill for the Shrine benefit game will be held. Dick Hanley, Northwestern coach, and Andy Kerr, Washington and Jefferson mentor, are handling the squad.

SUB CENTER TO SUCCEED HEARN AT HELM HERE

Bruce Tarver, substitute center on this year's eleven, will, captain the 1929 Santa Ana high school football squad. He succeeds the popular Aoger ("Doc") Hearn, who skipped the present squad through a most successful season.

Tarver, a junior, was a more or less surprise candidate yesterday when the squad balloted at the behest of Coach "Tex" Oliver after pictures for The Ariel, the high school annual magazine, were taken on the front lawn of the Administration building.

Clarence Spencer, halfback was the only other player nominated for the position and the race was extremely close for both candidates are popular with their teammates.

The ancient custom of electing a senior to the honorary place, broken only once in recent years when George Decker was made made leader at the end of his sophomore year to boss the 1924 troupe, eliminated Al Rebohn, star quarterback, and the other sophomores who would have been eligible. Spencer, Glenn Hartman, Jack Fredericks and Lloyd Nuzum were the only juniors on the squad besides Tarver.

Tarver is an honor student at high school, proving again that athletics do not necessarily detract from scholarship. He is a graduate of Frances E. Willard junior high school where he captained the football team in 1926. He played center on the Class B squad at Poly last season and was first understudy to Curt

DONS TOO GOOD FOR COLONISTS IN CAGE DEBUT

Plainly superior in all departments, Coach Bill Foote's Santa Ana junior college basketball squad opened its 1928-9 season with a 33 to 7 victory over Anaheim high school here yesterday.

Coach Foote gave all his players a chance to get in the game, running in a different team each quarter and making one or two substitutions besides that.

Bill Kolkhurst was high point man for the Dons, scoring 14 points of the 33. George Preble and Merle Youel also had their eye on the hoop surprisingly well for so early in the season.

Coach Foote has hopes of putting out a championship quintet this year. He has declined to pick and team definitely yet and will not do so until just before the first conference encounter now scheduled tentatively for January.

The fact that he used five separate combinations against Anaheim indicates his intention to do plenty of experimenting.

The lineup:
Santa Ana (33) Pos. (7) Anaheim
Shilson.....RF.....Buchard
Preble.....LF.....Dunham
Dews.....C.....Moore

Substitutions: Santa Ana—Foul,

U. C. Singers To Invade Pasadena

BERKELEY, Dec. 12.—The University of California Glee club as well as the Golden Bear band will be sent to Southern California for the California-Georgia Tech football game at Pasadena New Year's day. The full varsity club of 30 men will make the trip.

The California Glee club is famous as a world traveling organization, having many trips to the Orient, Europe, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii and eastern United States to its credit.

Bears Specialize On Center Pilots

BERKELEY, Dec. 12.—When Roy Riegels captains the California gridiron squad next season, it will mark the third time since 1920 that a center has led the Golden Bears, and the sixth time during the same period that the captain has been a lineman. The last three captains have all been linemen.

Von Elm Will Play In L. A. Tourney

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—George Von Elm, the flaxon-headed youth who set the links world ablaze a few years by trimming the great Bobby Jones to win the National amateur golf crown, will be a starter in the Los Angeles Open championship tournament next month at the Riviera Country club. . . . Definite word to this effect was received today from Salt Lake City where Von Elm now is visiting his parents.

HOLD BANQUET FOR J. C. GRID MEN THURSDAY

Plans for the annual football banquet of the Santa Ana Junior college were being given last minute, attention today in readiness for tomorrow night when the affair will be held in the college cafeteria at 6:30 o'clock. This is the occasion each year for the election of a Don football captain.

Several U. S. C. gridiron stars will be here and deliver speeches relating to football. It is thought that these will include Jesse Hibbs, "Jeff" Cravath, Don Williams, Lowry McCaslin, Francis Tappan and Captain-elect Nate Barrager. Coach Howard Jones will be unable to attend.

Walter Scott, physical education director in Santa Ana city schools, will officiate as toastmaster. Gerald Oliver and Bill Cook, coaches in Santa Ana high school and junior college, respectively, are to be the principal speakers.

Louis Romoff, student violinist from Anaheim, and Roy Grist, local saxophonist, are scheduled for the musical program.

The banquet is given annually to honor the football team. The Associated Women students are sponsoring the affair under the direction of Janet Wilson. Fifty tickets are being sold to college men and townsmen.

Fresno State Grid Coach Will Retire

FRESNO, Dec. 12.—Arthur W. Jones will retire as head football coach of the Fresno State college and a new senator not yet decided upon will be named to direct gridiron activities for 1929, it was announced today.

Large Sheephead Fish Caught Off Newport Harbor

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 12.—The largest sheephead fish ever caught off the coast of Southern California on a rod and reel was landed off the live bait boat Sunshine, operating from the Newport pier, a few days ago by C. E. Hammett, of Costa Mesa. It was reported here today. The fish weighed 82 pounds and more than a half hour was spent in battling the fish before it was finally landed.

Fishing from the live bait boat has been excellent, according to H. V. Ward, operator for O. A. Ozanne, owner.

Hammett also landed a dozen large calico bass weighing more than 70 pounds.

Pasadena College To Play San Mateo

PASADENA, Dec. 12.—With a stalwart line its chief mainstay, Pasadena will clash with San Mateo for the state junior college football championship at the Rose Bowl here Saturday.

DENY NEW COACH YARN

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 12.—Press reports stating that the University of Wisconsin had signed George Murphy, Yale freshman crew coach, to become head coach of the crew at the Badger school, are without foundation, according to a statement issued by George Little, Wisconsin athletic director, today.

Hal Cox Signs For Bout With Emanuel

"Wild Bill" Cox, who under the less pretentious handle of Hal Cox waged many a winning fistic battle as an amateur at Boyd Ellis' Delhi arena here, has signed to box Armand Emanuel, San Francisco heavyweight, according to information received here today. They will meet at the Olympic in Los Angeles next Tuesday night.

Cox came to Southern California from Canada about two years ago and started boxing inauspiciously here. He was a consistent winner and gradually improved until he took out a pro license. He was knocked out in his first professional bout but refused to be discouraged and kept plugging away. He did most of his fighting at Pasadena, clinching a long series of victories last week by beating Ernie Owens.

TONIGHT'S CARD
Main Event—Richie Thomas vs. "Little" Bobby La Salle, 125 pounds.
Semi-windup — Douglas Simpson vs. Jack Dillon, 175 pounds.
Preliminaries — Leonard Bennett vs. Lee Greathouse, 135 pounds; Steve Bailey vs. Jim Butler, 170 pounds; Bob Douglas vs. Norman Lemon, 145 pounds; Zip Montana vs. Emil Pora, 135 pounds; Felix Lugo vs. Marty Marano, 130 pounds.

brother will direct his warfare against Thomas, according to Major Anderson, business director of the O.C.A.C.

Thomas always has been a drawing card in Santa Ana but he hardly ranks with Doug Simpson, the young Englishman who claims the amateur light heavyweight championship of Scotland, as a crowd magnet. A capacity house saw the handsome Los Angeles Athletic club husky box Wally Frazier here several months ago and gave him an ovation for his courage in going through with his assignment despite the fact that he was suffering from tonsillitis. Simpson will be back this evening, meeting Jack Dillon, of Indianapolis, who is said to be a cousin of the more famous Jack Dillon.

Then Leonard Bennett, who made a sensational first appearance at the O.C.A.C. last week against Jesse Ayala, heads the preliminary boys. Bennett looked like he needed work for he "blew" badly in the last round but he dealt Ayala lots of punishment in the first two chapters and was an easy winner. Bennett, in better condition, clashes with Lee Greathouse, about whom little is known.

Thomas Reports To U. S. C. Squad

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—University of Southern California's basketball varsity now has a captain on the job, Lloyd Thomas, who had been elected last spring to head the Trojan basketball club of the 1928-29 season having returned to the court. Thomas' return to the court was delayed for three weeks after the start of practice due to his football playing up to December 1 and his desire then for a week's vacation from athletics.

With Thomas in reporting for basketball players who had taken a week's rest after the close of the grid season.

STAR GYMNASTS IN EXHIBITION FRIDAY NIGHT

Some of the world's finest gymnasts, including many of the same experts who electrified a tremendous crowd here last winter, will come to Andrews gymnasium Friday night for an exhibition of stunts such as never has been seen in Santa Ana before, according to the physical education department of the public schools, sponsor of the entertainment. A small admission fee will be levied. The gymnastic troupe belongs to the Los Angeles Athletic club and is headed by Coach Ben Price. Paul Krempel, Harry Bigger and Glenn Berry, all members of the 1928 American Olympic Games team, will appear with the squad.

The purpose of this demonstration, according to Walter Scott, director of physical education in the city schools, is to show the high class work that is possible on the bars, rings, bars, ropes and heavy apparatus.

Tickets may be obtained at the Victor Walker sports store at the door in Andrews gymnasium.

Citizenship Pupils To Attend Dinner

Classes which have been working toward the goal of American citizenship through the Americanization department of the Santa Ana public schools, headed by Mrs. Golden Norwood, will meet at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow, in Ketter's cafe, for dinner, it was announced today. John Ott, president-elect of the Exchange club, which is sponsoring the work of the Americanization department, will represent the club at tomorrow's affair.

Baby Gans Whips Rosen Decisively

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—Baby Joe Gans, Negro claimant to the junior welterweight title, scored an easy but impressive decision over Charley Rosen, New York scrapper, in a 10-round bout here last night. Gans swarmed all over the New Yorker with uppercuts to the head and stomach, but lacked the punch necessary to floor his man. The bout, marred by a series of clinches wearied by hauling and tugging, failed to impress the fans.

BOSTON COACH. 23. LED TEAM TO GREAT YEAR

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—A youth of 23 years, probably the youngest coach in collegiate football, led Boston college through an undefeated season.

Joe McKenny, only two years out of college, was the head coach of the team which upset Navy and Holy Cross, and smothered half a dozen other eastern eleven under top-heavy scores.

McKenny, former star of the Boston college eleven, took five men who were his teammates during the 1926 season and built about them a unit that scored 263 points during nine games to 39 for opponents.

Navy, in the second game of the year, offered a severe battle before yielding by a 6 to 0 score. Holy Cross, the final opponent, was feared because of its scoreless tie with Harvard. The Eagles, however, wound up a glorious season with a convincing 19 to 0 triumph.

Season's Record

Their record for the season reads: Boston college 23; Catholic U. 6. Boston college 19; Duke 0. Boston college 27; Boston U. 7. Boston college 60; Manhattan 6. Boston college 19; Fordham 0. Boston college 24; Canisius 0. Boston college 51; Conn. Aggies 13.

The 19 to 7 victory McKenny's Irishmen scored over Fordham was probably one of the most gratifying of the season, for the Fordham eleven was coached by Major rank Cavanaugh, former Boston college athletic director and the man under whom the youthful tactician learned his football.

McKenny employed a baffling mixture of plays in the repertoire of his eleven. He drew from college coaches all over the country, adopting any play which he thought might prove effective if launched from his backfield formations.

To these he added a sprinkling of original strategy and the result was attested by the record his men built up.

Hurling Ambition
Joe is a Boston boy and his original ambition, he claims, was to be a major league pitcher. He was a star pitcher during his scholastic days at Brighton high school in Boston and for a time it seemed as though he had a good chance to realize his hope.

His love for football brought an end to this however for he broke his shoulder during his senior year at Brighton and his throwing arm was never again effective.

Doctors told him he would have to give up football entirely if he hoped to regain the control that made him an effective scholastic pitcher. He tried to forget the gridiron but the call was too strong and he gained a berth on the Boston college team during his freshman year.

He played four years for the Eagles, sacrificing his baseball ambitions entirely, and was one of the outstanding stars of the team during his college career. After his graduation in the spring of 1927 he became a member of the coaching staff, succeeding Major Cavanaugh.

Boston college met with only fair success during the 1927 season, winning four and losing an equal number. The 1928 season, however, earned for him a place with the great coaches of the school.

BRUCE TARVER WILL BE SAINT CAPTAIN

You'd star snapperback on this year'sarsity. To saw considerable service in the big games.

Tarver is popular on the campus and prominent in many activities. He is a member of the self-government committee, sports editor of The Ariel, a member of the Hammond club and is associated with various other organizations.

With the election of their captain the 1928 Saint football ensemble performed its last official act. Uniforms were checked in after the pictures were taken yesterday and only a couple of banquets remain before the season is officially forgotten.

TROJANS BOOK LONG SCHEDULE FOR NEXT YEAR

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—With Gwynn Wilson, general manager of the associated students, now in the East seeking one of the leading eastern or southern football eleven for the University of Southern California's Homecoming game next year, Coach Howard Jones faces the prospect of going through one of the heaviest seasons in Trojan history in 1929.

Eleven games, including seven Pacific Coast conference affairs, a contest in Chicago with Notre Dame, two non-conference tilts at the Los Angeles Coliseum, and the Homecoming game with a team yet to be selected, are on the Southern California football program for 1929.

The 1929 schedule will mark the first meeting of football teams representing Southern California and U. C. L. A., the Trojans and Bruins being slated to open the season September 28 at the Los Angeles Coliseum. Oregon State college October 5 will be U. S. C.'s next opponent and on the following Saturday the Trojans will play the University of Washington in Seattle.

After a non-conference game at the Los Angeles Coliseum October 19, probably with Occidental, the Southern Californians will head northward again, this time stopping at Palo Alto for a contest with Stanford. California, another big rival, will be met on the following Saturday, November 2, the scene of this game being the home Coliseum.

After the Bear game, the Trojans will meet another non-conference opponent, possibly Nevada, on November 9, in the Coliseum, and then once again the Trojans will take to the road, this time trekking to Chicago for the annual battle with Notre Dame's fighting Irish. Returning to Los Angeles, the Trojans will meet Idaho November 23 and Washington State college November 30, ending the U. S. C. schedule of

Caldwell Through As Pro Footballer

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Bruce Caldwell, star of Yale's 1927 football team and picked on practically every All-American eleven in that year, is not so good as a professional player. His contract with the New York Giants which expired last Saturday, will not be renewed and Caldwell is a free agent.

Caldwell, who also plays baseball with the Cleveland Indians, will stick to the diamond in the future.

Gaels May Leave Far West Circuit

OAKLAND, Dec. 12.—Football followers were busy today with the unconfirmed rumor that St. Mary's would withdraw from the Far Western conference when the annual meeting is held Friday at San Francisco, and that St. Ignatius of that city might follow.

PREP GAME POSSIBLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Prospects of a football game between Lowell high school and Tilden Tech, Chicago, were somewhat enhanced today when it was learned that three citizens had guaranteed expenses for the Chicago players. Whether the game will be played now rests with Principal F. H. Clark of Lowell. It is understood here that the Chicago school has signified its willingness to meet the San Francisco champions.

HOPPE TRIUMPHS

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Dec. 12. Willie Hoppe, noted billiard player, was enroute to Chicago today after matches here in which he defeated Arthur Behrens, 25-17; Al A. Brown, 25-10; and "Snake" Powell, 25-10. He is going to Chicago to compete in the world championship three-cushion tournament starting December 17.

conference games. The final game will be played December 7, and like the Notre Dame contest of this year, will be the feature of the annual Homecoming program for U. S. C. alumni.

WRIGHT TRADED TO ROBINS FOR PITCHER PETTY

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Two National league ball players who had their troubles last season will wear new uniforms this season as a result of the trade which sent Glenn Wright, star shortstop of the Pittsburgh Pirates, to the Brooklyn Robins for Jess Petty, left-handed pitcher, and Harry Riconda, utility infielder.

The deal completed last night between Donie Bush, manager of the Pirates, and Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Robins, was the only one negotiated between National league clubs at the annual meeting which closed yesterday.

Wright, who was rated the best shortstop in the league in 1924 and 1925 failed to play up to his best at Pittsburgh last season and was constantly in bad with the management.

Petty was fined $200 and suspended at one time last season for breaking training rules.

The Robins also sold "Jigger" Staz, outfielder, outright to Los Angeles and gave Joe Harris, veteran first baseman and outfielder, his unconditional release.

The Phillies released Jimmy Ring, veteran pitcher, to Los Angeles, but Ring said it was too far away from home and that he would not report.

Whyte To Skipper Princeton Squad

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 12.—John Reed Whyte, of Princeton, N. J., has been elected to captain the Princeton varsity football team next season. The election of Whyte, who plays tackle, was in accordance with the tradition that has sprung up in Princeton since the war that a junior linesman be named the captain.

WATCH OUT, HARVARD!

Florida, one of the outstanding teams of the year, has scheduled a game with Harvard for the 1929 season.

FIGHT RESULTS

At Hagerston, Md.—Bobby Garcia outpointed Andy Kelly, Baltimore (8).

At Reading, Pa.—Young Johnny Ketchell, Chester, Pa., defeated Billy Drako, German waterweight (8).

At Allentown, Pa.—Henry Hart, of Allentown, kayoed Johnny Cansneri, of Alpha, N. J. (3).
At Los Angeles—Baby Joe Gans, Los Angeles, outpointed Charley Rosen, New York (10).

New Features of- The Outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet History - a Six in the price range of the four!

Everywhere The Outstanding Chevrolet is being hailed as a spectacular achievement in advanced design, because it embodies the greatest array of improvements ever offered on any automobile of comparable price.

Here, for example, is a marvelous new six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine whose design represents over four years of development and testing on the part of Chevrolet and General Motors engineers. It has numerous advancements typified by a non-detonating, high-compression cylinder head—gasoline pump with filter, and automatic rocker arm lubrication. It provides performance the like of which was never before available in the low-price field—marvelous smoothness, tremendous reserve power and sensationally swift acceleration—all with an economy averaging better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline!

Here are new and improved four-wheel brakes unsurpassed for silence in operation, positive action and ease of adjustability!

Here are marvelous new Fisher bodies introducing a new order of beauty, smartness and luxury.

And here, also, are other features by the score—each an impressive example of automotive progress—each contributing to outstanding performance, quiet operation, long life, ease of control and economical ownership!

We cordially invite you to visit our showroom and secure complete and detailed information regarding this great new car, which will be ready for delivery beginning January 1st.

Chevrolet's new six-cylinder, fully enclosed valve-in-head engine has a high compression non-detonating head. Its piston displacement is 194 cu. in. and it develops 46 h. p. at low engine speed.

An automatic accelerating pump results in unusually swift acceleration, as well as greater gasoline economy.

On the indirectly lighted instrument panel are grouped all controls, including the water temperature indicator and the speedometer. Electro-lock.

The new chromium plated motor, lamp standards and rims, and one-piece full crown fenders are typical fine car features of the Outstanding Chevrolet.

The adjustable driver's seat in all closed models. This brings the clutch and brake pedals within proper reach for all drivers.

Newly designed 4-wheel brakes, self-positive—quiet.

Marvelous new bodies by Fisher are an outstanding feature of the Outstanding Chevrolet.

EVERY COUNTY SENDS MEN TO STATE PRISON

By HOMER L. ROBERTS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
(Special to The Register)

REPRESA, Calif., Dec. 12.—Represa is an up-and-coming California town of 2182 inhabitants—yet not one of them was allowed to vote for president at the November election.

But for a very good reason: Represa is the post office of Folsom state prison, and convicts are not permitted to vote. Once a man entered the iron gates of this rock bound city, high in the Sierras, he loses his name and becomes a number. He is no longer a citizen; he is a social outcast.

Every county in California is represented at Represa by one or more convicts. Orange county, for example, has 35 prisoners in this "stone house on the hill."

Within this grim city are 100 murderers, and even stone walls cannot stop their activities. This summer two convicts were slain in desperate quarrels, and it was little more than a year ago that 14 men lost their lives when six convicts made a wild dash for freedom.

Warden Court Smith has given the United Press some little-known but interesting facts about his prison. They are as follows: Violation of the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," sent three-fourths of the inmates on the downward path that led to this prison.

Of the 2182 convicts, 1731 are white men, 208 are Mexicans, 205 Negroes, and the remainder mostly Orientals.

Youth predominates, with 574 convicts from 25 to 29 years of age, 403 from 20 to 24, 375 from 30 to 34, and 290 from 35 to 39.

Most prisoners are educated men. There are 1100 public school graduates, 519 high school students, 150 high school graduates and 32 college graduates. Only 144 are listed as "illiterate."

Only 123 convicts are "doing the book,"—or a life sentence. Of the rest, 386 are serving from one to five years, 466 from six to 10 years, and 910 are indeterminates, whose sentences remain to be fixed.

Warden Smith is proud of the "extra-curricular" activities of the men at the prison. There is plenty to keep them busy.

"We have a concert band of 36 pieces," he said, "that would compare favorably, I believe, with the best musical organizations in California. We also have a splendid 12-piece orchestra."

"We have all kinds of track and field athletes, boxers and wrestlers. The Represa All-Stars are considered one of the strongest semi-pro teams in Northern California. Among the other recreation facilities are handball, checkers, chess, American dominoes and horseshoes."

TALBERT

TALBERT, Dec. 12.—A report was made at the quarterly conference of the Greenville circuit of the Methodist church, south, held at the Talbert church, when the presiding elder of the district, Dr. Cecil B. Aker, of Los Angeles, was present.

In the neighborhood of 450 people attended the sale held Saturday at the S. E. Talbert ranch. Lunch was served at noon, tables being arranged under the shade trees in the farm yard.

WANTS DEAUVILLE DOUGH

Mme. Melin Merey, who wears the title of "the belle of Deauville," feels that she has been beautiful but "done"—or, more specifically, that she has been done beautifully. She claims in an action against M. Diamant, of the French resort, that he offered a 50,000-franc movie opportunity to the winner of a seashore beauty contest. She won the title, received cheers from the crowd and that was all, she says. So she wants the matter settled on its face value, as it were.

COUNTY URGED TO REPRODUCE PIONEER LIFE

BY HOMER L. ROBERTS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
(Special to The Register)

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 12.—(UP)—Orange county, with its wealth of history and legend, might well capitalize upon these resources by perpetuating them in school or community pageants, according to William John Cooper, director of the state department of education.

Success of the "Ramona pageant," staged by the small cities of Hemet and San Jacinto, was cited by Cooper as an illustration of the value of such community enterprises.

"I was much impressed with the value of the Ramona pageant when I first had the opportunity of seeing it," Cooper said. "It presented a wonderful spectacle of community co-operation and combined into one project that community's assets in music, art and the drama."

"As I viewed that pageant, I was led to reflect that the historic romance of many California cities and counties is largely undeveloped. I wondered why more of our small communities, at least, might not capitalize these resources now unknown to many of their citizens."

The state department of education, through Professor Samuel J. Hume of Berkeley, art evangelist and dramatic director, stands ready to assist any community in California in putting on a similar pageant, or in organizing art and music associations.

This is in line with the purpose for which Hume's services were engaged as "director of vocational education," Cooper explained. In brief, Hume's position is to aid young men and women to make use of their leisure time.

Community singing, amateur dramatics in rural schools, community pageants, inspirational talks to luncheon clubs are a few of the many phases of the new official's work.

"What to do with our leisure time is one of the big problems in modern education," Hume says. "The machine age of today tends to make robots of us all."

"Our leisure hours are filled too much with mere reactions against the mechanistic nature of other nations in the world, and our daily grind. That is why we have more neurotics than any is one of the reasons we have a juvenile crime problem."

STOP BAD BREATH

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

Olive Tablets bring no griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after 20 years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take nightly for a week and note the effect. 15c, 30c, 60c. All Druggists.—Adv.

Beach Area To Continue Battle For Own High School

SCHOOL BOARD
HERE SUPPORTS
HARBOR EFFORT

The Newport harbor area will continue to make a determined effort to secure passage of a bill at the next legislature which would allow it to separate from the Santa Ana high school district. But at the present time predictions cannot be made as to what position the section would take in regard to another high school bond election in case the bill fails as the harbor district does not wish to take the risk of compromising itself before the legislature, it was said.

This situation was revealed at last night's conference between the board of education and representatives from the harbor area.

The board again expressed its wish to assist the beach region in its attempt to separate and unanimously voted a resolution putting itself on record as favoring any move which would aid it in achieving this end.

However, passage of the bill would not put the Newport region out of the Santa Ana high school district but would give the voters a chance to express themselves on the subject, according to George Macleod, secretary of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce.

May Wish To Stay In
"Even if we get the legislation, conditions may change so that we might want to stay in," Macleod told the board last night, indicating that a decision in this matter would follow passage of the bill.

Dr. John Ball, president of the board, outlined the situation to the harbor representatives and said that a bond election for the elementary school district probably would be staged in February and that one for the high school district might be put on next fall. He told the group that the board is ready to postpone action on the high school matter until the legislature acts but stated that the situation is so serious that definite steps to relieve it must be taken without undue delay.

Donald J. Dodge, of Costa Mesa, told the board he did not believe the harbor vote is large enough to affect another bond election adversely and stated that at the last election, even if every vote there had favored the bonds, the total would have been 500 short of the necessary number to carry the issue. He predicted a large harbor community within a few years and declared that the assessed valuation there had increased 20 to 25 per cent in the last year.

It was pointed out that the board was ready to include a four-year junior high school in Costa Mesa in building plans, which could be turned into a senior high if separation occurred. This would fit in with the six-four-four scheme of education which is expected to develop, it was declared. Macleod pointed out that this move would not be acceptable to the harbor district because it does not like the six-four-four plan and because it is believed that the location of a junior high school in Costa Mesa would make it more difficult than ever to achieve legal separation from the Santa Ana district.

Favored By State Board
Leroy Anderson, attorney for harbor district proponents, stated that

VALUATIONS ON SCHOOLS HERE TO BE REDUCED

Following an expert insurance appraisal of school buildings in Santa Ana and a study of the situation by a committee appointed by the board of education, it was announced last night, at the board session, that it will be possible to lop off $111,621 from the valuations on which the insurance is based.

The saving thus effected will more than offset the cost of the appraisal authorized by the board as a means of analyzing the insurance business of the schools, it was pointed out.

M. O. Robbins, representing the committee, made it clear that the district has not been carrying too much insurance according to the valuation of its buildings but that the valuations, made on the basis of actual cost figures at the peak of prices, were in line for revision downward under present conditions.

The board adopted the report submitted by Robbins, which recommended that elementary school policies, expiring December 1, along with three high school policies, expiring on the same date, be allowed to lapse. The committee will recommend a general paring down of the insurance on a basis that will distribute the reductions equitably, it was pointed out by Robbins.

Robbins' report stated that $675,650 of insurance is being carried on general high school forms with $11,000 on specific high school property. On the elementary schedule there is $439,800 of insurance, with $71,000 on specific elementary district items, according to the report. He said that the committee recommended carrying a small excess above the actual schedule to cover the contingencies of lapses policies or additional improvements.

YULE NUMBERS
SELECTED FOR BAND CONCERT

By RUTH ANDREWS

Everything now is in readiness for presentation of the Santa Ana Municipal band's Christmas concert in the Santa Ana high school auditorium tomorrow night, under the direction of D. C. Clanton. It is felt that this elaborate holiday program, to be offered free to the public, will be one of the most colorful ever presented by the Santa Ana band. Music lovers of this vicinity eagerly anticipate the premiere appearance of the Treble Clef club, new ladies' choral ensemble, to be heard in special Christmas numbers, directed by Margherita Marsden.

Numbers programmed by the band have been carefully selected with regard for the festive gaiety of the Yuletide season. A special feature will be presentation of the entire "Nutcracker Suite" by Peter Tschakovsky, a symphonic fantasy composed of several movements characterized by graceful delicacy, a universal favorite with concert-goers. A brief synopsis of the German fairy-tale on which the suite is founded, follows:

During a Christmas party, the children gathered about the illuminated tree, eagerly receiving toys. Little Marie, daughter of the host, receives a nutcracker, coveted by the others. It is broken during play and she leaves it beneath the Christmas tree, stealing downstairs for another peep at it at midnight, while the rest sleep.

Toys Come To Life

Suddenly the room is invaded by mice. All the toys, also the nutcracker, come to life. During ensuing commotion the nutcracker leads a charge against the mice, Marie, throwing her shoe at the general of the mice, puts his army to rout. Changing to a handsome prince, the nutcracker and Marie fly away to the magic kingdom of the Sugar Plum fairy, a dance being given by the sweetmeats in their honor.

Movements composing the suite include Marche, Danse Arabe, Danse de la Fee Dragee, Danse Russian Trepak, Danse Chinoise, Danse of the Miriltions, Valse des Fleurs.

The vivacious march is expressive of the joyful holiday spirit. Suggesting the exotic east, the Danse Arabe is a fantastic oriental movement, tamborine and oboe lending Oriental color. Danse de la Fee Dragee is dainty and graceful, a celesta used in the original score, with sombre bass clarinet adding rich color.

Danse Russe Trepak is a genuine national dance of Russia. Impetuous, stormy, a whirlwind movement vitalized by whistling flutes, explosive orchestral chords and rap of tamborine, ever increasing in tempo and volume. Danse Chinoise is brief, charmingly grotesque, a peculiar Oriental melody represented by piccolo and flutes, answered by pizzicato of strings, bells and wood-tones.

Toy Instruments Heard

Dance des Miriltions is especially effective. Miriltions are toy instruments emitting a sound similar to singing on a comb. Against a droning bass background, flutes and clarinets carry the melody, addition of English horn ensuing with return of original theme. The concluding movement, "Valse des Fleurs," suggests the delicate beauty of the flowers, in which

LAUNCHING SEAL DRIVE

SUPERVISORS URGE SUPPORT FOR CHRISTMAS SEAL DRIVE

The board of supervisors yesterday gave its hearty endorsement to the work of the Orange County Tuberculosis association and its health camp in the Santiago canyon.

A resolution commending the activity carried out by the organization was passed today and was signed by each member of the board, William Schumacher, chairman, William Smith, of Orange; John Mitchell, of Garden Grove; George Jeffrey, Irvine, and Col. S. H. Finley, Santa Ana.

"In recognition of the splendid work being done by the Orange County Tuberculosis association in building and training the under-privileged children of this county at the health camp in the Santiago canyon, the board of supervisors hereby endorses the Christmas health seal sale of the organization and urges the residents of this county to give their generous support to the campaign as one of the finest contributions they can make toward the welfare of this county," the resolution said.

The annual Christmas seal sale is being carried on throughout the county by the organization at present by workers in each community. Proceeds are to be used in the operation of the camp and in helping in the state tuberculosis work.

On Booze Charge

Pleading guilty to a charge of possession of liquor, Levi Stone, rancher, who resides four miles northeast of Fullerton, was fined $300 in Fullerton justice court yesterday afternoon. Stone was arrested when Robert Sandon, of the district attorney's office, is said to have found 80 gallons of wine on his premises.

cadenza for harp plays a prominent part.

Miss Zhay Clark, famous harpist, will be heard in connection with the band in its presentation of the "Nutcracker Suite," as well as in Verdi's Overture, "Joan of Arc," and a harp solo, "Symphonic Poem—Vltava" by Smetana-Irnscek, a special feature of the colorfully picturesque program.

OF KNIFE FIGHT

The aftermath of a cutting scrape in Talbert, last Saturday night, when Rafael Lopez, Talbert, was cut about the face with a knife, came in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday when one man was sentenced to six months in the county jail, another was sent to jail for 30 days and a third received a suspended sentence.

Domiguez Madrigal, alleged welder of the knife, was sentenced to six months and his victim, Lopez, ordered to jail for 30 days. Regallo Magallanes was given a suspended sentence.

The fight started over a poker game in a private house in Tal-

EXCHANGE CLUB
HEARS SONGS OF OPERETTA

A sample of the type of entertainment which will be presented by students of the Frances Willard junior high school December 18 and 19, in the operetta, "Ghost of Lollypop Bay," was greeted with applause yesterday, when part of the cast sang several numbers from the production at the meeting of the Santa Ana Exchange club.

Accompanied by Mrs. Frances Beeson and Miss Grace Smiley, the young vocalists sang some of the most catchy numbers, including "My Moon of Dreams," sung by Marvin Rohrs; "Bumble Bee Song," sung by Miss Marian Hawk; "Stop, Look and Listen," sung by Tom Griffith; and "Mary Dear" sung by Mario Mercurio. Miss Esther Jean Davis explained the nature of the operetta and introduced the cast.

The Newport Exchange club, having accepted the challenge to a golf tournament, issued by the Santa Ana club, Ed Pettitt, chairman of arrangements for the event, announced the team which will represent the Santa Ana organization. William Rohrbacher, Kemp Taylor, Dr. John Wehrly, Gene Hays, Stanley Clem, Pettitt, Dr. James Farrage, Frank Koss, Charles Swanner and John Martell compose the team. Arrangements were made between Pettitt and Gene Fenelon, president of the Newport club, whereby the losers will buy dinner for the victors after the contest.

Election of officers for the coming year in the El Toro club, an organization within the Exchange club, was completed today. Ed Pettitt, chief standing bull, conducted the balloting and restated the aims of the organization before the election. Qualifications for membership are hard to meet, he pointed out, inasmuch as applicants must demonstrate high pressure talking ability before becoming eligible to membership in the El Toro club. He pointed out that every Exchange club member is now a member of the El Toro group.

Dr. James Farrage was chosen chief standing bull, to succeed Pettitt. De Witt Dudley was made secretary, succeeding Les Eckel. M. L. Wislon was elected first cuspidor.

TRAIL OF PENNIES

GIBRALTAR, Dec. 12.—A trail of pennies placed end to end in the roadway and stretching from one end of the main street to the other, was the novel method adopted here to obtain a large amount of money for the Earl Haig Fund for disabled soldiers. Sir Alexander Godley, the Governor of Gibraltar, placed the first penny of the trail which grew rapidly.

ROTARY CLUB
HEARS QUARTET
FROM THEATER

The "Original Foursome Four," appearing in the Yost Broadway theater, yesterday provided virtually the full program offered at the meeting of the Rotary club.

The singers entertained with lively and catchy songs of the popular type. Marvin Rohrs, who will take one of the characters in the operetta, "The Ghosts of Lollypop Bay," to be presented by the Frances Willard junior high school, added a vocal number to the program, being accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Frances Beeson.

Ed Yost was program chairman and during the course of the program extended an invitation to Rotarians and their wives to be his guests at a theater party Christmas eve, the program starting at 7 o'clock.

The club yesterday voted to omit regular meetings scheduled for December 25 and January 1.

Buena Park Fire
Draws Hundreds

BUENA PARK, Dec. 12.—Attracting several hundred residents, fire early this morning destroyed the small residence belonging to J. Polish and located on Orange-thorpe avenue near Grand avenue. The alarm was turned in by a passing oil worker. The fire had gained such headway that the Buena Park fire department was unable to save the home. The dwelling was unoccupied.

IMPROVEMENT IN JAYSEES OF NATION MARKED

Market improvement in instruction and presentation of subject material in junior colleges throughout the United States was clearly revealed when the American Association of Junior Colleges met in Fort Worth, Texas, in its ninth annual convention, December 3 to 5, inclusive.

Reports showed that in September of 1928 there were 408 junior colleges in the United States, distributed through all but five states. California and Texas lead, each having 40 such institutions.

The six-four-four plan, by which junior colleges are organized as four-year institutions, did not receive much attention, according to Dean McKee Flisk, delegate from Santa Ana. The Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of Southern States, which was meeting in Fort Worth at the same time as the junior college association, voted, however, to accredit four-year junior colleges.

Recommendation of the organization of a National Scholarship Honor society was received with enthusiasm by the convention. Several mergers of honor societies throughout the United States have been made recently, it was brought out.

Other questions taken up were salaries, tenure of instruction and preparation of junior college teachers. Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma, expressed the belief that the two major problems of the junior college are finance and standards.

HouseholdRev. U. E. Harding Is
Speaker at Meeting
Of W. C. T. U.

The Rev. U. E. Harding, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, this city, spoke on "Narcotic Reform" yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance union which was held at the First Baptist church.

The Rev. Mr. Harding, who was introduced by Mrs. N. H. Leonard, director of the Anti-Narcotics department, told of the many new ways in which the government is combating the spread of the drug evil. He also spoke on various other reforms which are of great importance to this country.

Mrs. Amy Evans, president of the organization, presided over the business meeting when Mrs. C. E. Hogue reported on a recent visit to the W. C. T. U. home for women at Eagle Rock. Mrs. Hogue, in company with several other members of the local chapter, motored to the home to take fruit, nuts, and other delicacies to the inmates of the home.

It was voted to send $10 to the Home center for soldiers and sailors at San Diego where the sum will be added to the Christmas entertainment fund.

Plans for the county executive meeting of the W. C. T. U. were announced and it was stated that the next meeting of that body will take place at the home of Mrs. R. W. Jones of El Modena Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Anyone interested in attending the meeting is invited to be present. The devotional service was led by Mrs. Evans who recited, from memory, the thirteenth chapter of Corinthians.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Christmas Party
The Northwest section of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a delightful afternoon recently at the beautiful new home of Mrs. J. I. Clark, 1611 North Broadway.

The affair was a Christmas party and an exchange of gifts was enjoyed. A beautiful tree and Santa Claus, impersonated by Mrs. Irma Soest, added to the merriment of the affair.

Mrs. Clark presented the program consisting of vocal solos by Little Yerna, Maria Osborn accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. Jasper Osborn. Two vocal solos were pleasingly rendered by Hugh Runnels accompanied by Miss Armstrong.

The hostess committee for the afternoon consisted of Mrs. Irma Soest, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Smedley, Mrs. Jasper Osborn, Mrs. G. J. Mosbaugh, Miss B. Armstrong, Mrs. Marie McKean, Miss Effie Douglas and Mrs. Clark.

When You Begin to Get Fat

Fats are most concentrated of the three food classifications. They are ENERGY foods, 90 per cent of which can be used by the body as HEAT. They are found in practically everything eaten, with the exception of sugars.

The commonest and best known is butter. A pound of butter has 3410 calories, while a pound of tomatoes has but 100, but the 100 calories of butter, a tablespoonful, have the same heating power as the full pound of tomatoes also 100 calories.

You can readily see what would happen if you ate a full pound of butter at one meal. No ordinary occupation uses up such an amount of energy.

When more is eaten than is needed to fill ordinary body requirements the reserve is put away in various parts of the body as FAT TISSUE.

The limit eaten by those occupied in ordinary work other than actual hard labor should be 2400 calories. Of this amount 1500 calories should be carbohydrates, divided among the various kinds with most of them low-grade (leafy vegetables, fruits, salads) 500 or 600 should be FATS supplied by butter, cream, nuts, etc. The remaining 500 can be proteins taken from either the animal or vegetable foods.

Proteins will be discussed tomorrow.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Drawn Brown Sauce

1-3 cup butter (5 tablespoonsful)
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups boiling water
1/4 teaspoon salt

Blend four tablespoons of the butter with the flour—do this in the top of a double boiler. Gradually pour in the boiling water, stirring constantly until the sauce is smooth and thick. Cover and leave where the sauce will just keep warm, it is then ready to use for whatever purpose you wish.

For a change, boil the next leg of mutton you buy and serve it with—

Caper Sauce

2 cups drawn butter sauce
1 tablespoon butter
4 tablespoons chopped capers
Drain the capers of juice and mince fine with a knife, add them to the sauce and add the remaining tablespoonful of butter cut in small bits, when it melts lightly stir the sauce and serve immediately.

One-third of a cup of canned mushrooms cut in bits and added to the Drawn Butter sauce is nice for beef. . . also grated horseradish, well-drained, mixed with the sauce just before serving, and further seasoning of cayenne or paprika added. This is used with baked or pan-broiled ham.

The number of calories in this sauce are negligible as far as number goes, but it's a different story when it comes to kind. These are fat and starch calories, highly productive of energy.

Have you headache when you get up in the morning? Bad disposition? In fact, anything that isn't at least 90 per cent right has no business in your day. The "daily dozen" requiring just 10 little minutes will not only do away with these mollygrubs, but will add beauty to your figure and face.

A stamped, self-addressed envelope will bring you ANN'S DAILY DOZEN, a quick and efficient set of exercises worked out for the busy housewife. Yes, I use them myself, each and every day!

How about a puffy brown omelette for TOMORROW'S lunch or dinner? I have a new recipe I want you to try; fill it with anything you like from jelly to tuna fish.

ANN MEREDITH.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Executive board of the Orange County W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. R. W. Jones of El Modena Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Those interested in attending the meeting may do so.

Frances Willard P.-T. A. meeting for December has been postponed and the next meeting of that organization will take place in January.

Mrs. Thomas Blair's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church will not hold its Christmas party Friday as was previously announced.

Fraternal Brotherhood will hold election of officers Friday night, 8 o'clock, at El Camino hall.

Tustin grammar school P.-T. A. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the kindergarten room.

Dorcas society of the First Methodist Episcopal church will hold a Christmas party, following the business meeting, Friday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. F. Kisting, 221 South Main street. There will be a gift exchange.

Ruth Bryan Owens to Be Guest of Honor at Ebell Luncheon

Ruth Bryan Owens, United States congresswoman from Florida, who is to speak at the Santa Ana Ebell club December 17, will be honored at a luncheon which will be held at the clubhouse by the board of directors, chairmen of committees, and leaders of sections, immediately preceding the meeting of the society.

Mrs. Owens, who is known throughout the world for her many accomplishments in the political world as well as in relief work in Europe during the war and afterwards in England, will be on the Pacific coast only a short time and Santa Ana is one of the few places where she will speak.

Mrs. F. E. Coulter, president of the club, pointed out that the luncheon will probably be filled to capacity on that day and for this reason members have been requested to present their membership cards at the door. She also stated that guest tickets will not be honored. However, anyone who wishes to hear Mrs. Owens may do so for a nominal fee, to be paid at the door.

Santa Ana Women Are Guests at Pretty
Party, Shower

A group of Santa Ana women were guests recently at a pretty party given by Miss Mary Nuelin of Orange in honor of Miss Marie Williams, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Stone of Orange, who is to marry Miss Nuelin's brother, Fred, in the near future.

The amusing game of bunko was played during the evening and it resulted in attractive prizes being won by Miss Louise Pea Doyle of Orange. Following the card game, the merry group made a scrapbook entitled "Sweetheart Days" that was presented to the honoree.

Following the supper hour, when refreshments were served at the card tables where appointments were carried out in tones of pink, Miss Williams was presented with many lovely gifts for her new home. She found the gifts after a long search as they were "the treasure at the end of the path." Guests included the Misses Crystal Talley, Vivian Larsen, Myrtle Illingworth, Louise Pea, Frances Wickersham, Mary Chatfield and Minerva Carpenter, all of Santa Ana; the Misses Ethel Hagerman, Dorothy Doyle, Ina Hagerman, Emily Unzelman and Masdames Myrtle Nuelin, F. C. Nuelin, M. E. Stone, Frank Wallace and L. H. Cole of Orange, and Mrs. Wright of Garden Grove.

Christmas Party Held
For Employees at Rankin's

Employees at the Rankin Dry Goods company enjoyed their annual Christmas party last night when they were entertained at dinner which was followed by the presentation of the many gifts which had found their way to the gay Christmas tree which had called forth the admiration of all who have seen it.

Bruce Switzer acted as toastmaster at the dinner and he toiled on the heads of various departments to give addresses on how to improve Christmas service.

Following the dinner, everyone adjourned to the second floor of the Rankin building where the Christmas tree stood in all its glory. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, enacted by Mrs. Barnard and Mrs. Mary Thompson, arrived at the proper moment and assisted in distributing the packages.

BOLSA

BOLSA, Dec. 12.—Ted Mon, who joined the U. S. army three years ago while a resident here, was in Bolsa Sunday, his enlistment having expired. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Josephine Mon, and brother, John Mon, all of whom drove from the family home at Chino. They called at the Farnsworth and Pysden homes.

Five tables of cards were in play at the Bolsa clubhouse when the club auxiliary, with Mrs. W. L. Walton and Mrs. Jess Howard were co-hostesses recently. Prizes were awarded Frank Walker, George Annin, Mrs. Mary Howard and Jack Sargent.

A number of Bolsa friends attended the funeral, Monday, of Mrs. Nobu Yamada and son, Ben Yamada. The boy was a pupil in the primary grade of the Bolsa school. About three hundred were in attendance at the services held for the victims of the fire that destroyed their home at the corner of First street and Garden Grove boulevard Friday.

Gerald Price, who attends Agricultural college at Corvallis, Oregon, states that the temperature there stands at about zero in mid-afternoon at the present time. Price will leave Corvallis December 20, for home, to spend the Christmas vacation.

George Pysden has been confined to his home with influenza since Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Richardson is among those ill with influenza.

J. D. Appleton, who was taken to the hospital last week, is very low, it is reported.

St. Ann's Inn Setting
For Pretty Bridge
Luncheon

St. Ann's Inn was the setting yesterday afternoon for one of the season's prettiest parties when Mrs. Lyman Tremain and Mrs. C. S. Skirvin entertained with a bridge luncheon.

Gorgeous poinsettias and gay cotoneasters, sent to the hostesses by Mrs. F. M. Martin, Mrs. W. B. Williams, Mrs. T. Vance and Mrs. Thurza Marrs, were artistically arranged as a background for the affair while each luncheon table was centered with a tall red candle to further carry out the Christmas motif.

The attractive gifts, in cheery Christmas wrappings, awarded for the three highest scores, were presented to Mrs. W. H. Haddon, Mrs. Addie Collins and Mrs. John Wheeler.

The guest list included: Mrs. Cood Adams, Mrs. James L. Allen, Mrs. R. O. Alexander, Mrs. Reeves Aylmore, Mrs. George Briggs, Mrs. Alex Brownridge, Mrs. W. L. H. Benton, Mrs. V. Brady, Mrs. J. H. Quill Pen Club Members
Are Delightfully Entertained

Members of the Quill Pen club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Jeannette Wells and Miss Verna Wells last evening on the occasion of their semi-monthly meeting. Each member answered roll call with a verse suitable for a Christmas greeting card.

Two stories and one article were presented. Mrs. Marshall Harnois read "The Price of Faith" and Miss Verna Wells, "Tan." An article "The Open Snowball" was read by Mrs. Blanche Brown. An exciting action story "Captain Jones Trip by Sea," in eight chapters, the work of Master Frank was, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank was, was read by the little lad's mother.

Mrs. Harnois developed a theme of sacrifice for faith and the atonement for a sin, while Miss Wells told the tale of a girl who lived in the days of the "Merry Widow" hat. Mrs. Brown wrote of the development of the American opera.

Miss Lucy Agar, president of the organization, presented each with attractive booklets in which the impressions of the club members written at the last meeting were typed.

Plans were made for a costume Christmas party to be given at the home of Mrs. Harry M. Smith next Tuesday evening. At this time the customary Christmas "newspaper" will be compiled by the members.

Those present at last night's meeting were, Mrs. Blanche Brown, Miss Lucy Agar, Mrs. J. U. Vian, Mrs. J. F. Adams, Mrs. Marshall Harnois, Mrs. Frank Was, Mrs. Marie Goff, Mrs. Harry M. Smith, and the hostesses, Miss Verna Wells and Mrs. Jeannette Wells.

Lions Club Members
Dinner Guests

Fifteen members of the senior Lions club were entertained by the Junior Lions club in the junior college cafeteria last night when plans for the January activities of the organization were made.

Ten committees were appointed by the president, Willard White, to work on the Junior Lions dance, an event of January 13, which is to be given at the Santa Ana Country club.

Melva Fletcher, soloist, gave several numbers during the evening as did Dorothy McDonald and Clarke Brown, jazz entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hawley have returned from a vacation trip to Arizona.

Mrs. Purlie I. Young of Costa Mesa, and Mrs. T. L. Overton of 613 West Third street, left today for an automobile trip to Santa Barbara.

Husbands Are Guests
At Dinner and Bridge

Husbands of the members of the Ebell Fifth Household Economics section were entertained in merry fashion last night when they were guests of their wives at a dinner and bridge party at the clubhouse.

The delicious menu was planned and served by Mrs. Hugh Shields and her committee that included Mrs. Hugh Plumb, Mrs. James W. Rice, Mrs. Edward Walker, Mrs. Severin Schulte, Mrs. Glenn Warren, Mrs. Frank Preston, Mrs. E. H. Guthrie, Mrs. Marguerite Borgmeyer, Mrs. Carl Klatt, and Mrs. J. A. Prescott.

Tables were decorated in Christmas colors and an amusing feature was the gift exchange.

When bridge scores were added at the end of the evening it was found that Mrs. A. V. Herr, Mrs. Floyd Spencer, Dr. George Chapman and Hugh Plumb were high. Each one received an appropriate gift as did Clifford Kirk who won the special prize.

Those present for the affair included Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen and Mrs. Cood Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Krahling, Mr. and Mrs. John Estes Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Skirvin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haddon, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Herr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Klatt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Marguerite, and Miss Minnie Jane Stephens.

Miss Eleanor Thatcher
Is Complimented
On Birthday

The approaching marriage of Miss Eleanor Thatcher, charming, dark haired daughter of Mrs. Edith Thatcher of 506 East Chestnut avenue, and Lewis Reark of Los Angeles that is to take place on the afternoon of December 31, was the incentive for a surprise party and shower held for Miss Thatcher on her birthday anniversary recently.

The affair was arranged by her aunt, Mrs. C. F. Jackson, and Mrs. C. W. Leamer and included a delightful dinner which was served in the Thatcher home after which the entire party went to the Jackson home for a happy evening of games and conversation.

Many pretty gifts for the honoree's new home were presented her on the occasion.

The wedding of Miss Thatcher and Mr. Reark will be the culmination of a romance which began when both were students at Oberlin college in Ohio. Both young people graduated from that institution in 1926 and Miss Thatcher came to Santa Ana where, for two years, she taught school.

The ceremony will be performed at the First Congregational church by the Rev. Perry F. Schrock.

Mrs. Harnois developed a theme of sacrifice for faith and the atonement for a sin, while Miss Wells told the tale of a girl who lived in the days of the "Merry Widow" hat. Mrs. Brown wrote of the development of the American opera.

The WOMAN'S DAY by ALLENE SUMNER

Little Gloria Caruso has already been given more than a million dollars royalty money from the records of her famous father, Enrico Caruso. Gloria's mother is watching her small daughter's throat as closely as her rights to her father's money.

It's rather possible that if given her choice she would prefer Gloria to really have her father's voice, as many say she has, than to be sole heir to his fortune—not only because such a throat is a fortune, but because it would be a real and immortal continuation of Caruso himself. Dorothy Caruso's more or less recent biography of her husband rather indicates that she would like that immortality in their daughter.

POOR WENCH!

A German kitchen wench posed as "Princess Margareta of Prussia" cashed phony checks right and left, charged bills everywhere, and really lived like a princess for weeks before caught and given a two-year jail sentence. Maybe it was worth it. Here's hoping!

OMEN ON ZEP

The Graf Zeppelin is booked for a North Pole trip in the spring of 1930, according to Commander Eckener. Here's wagering that literally hundreds of women have clamored for the chance to go as cooks and chambermaids and newspaper reporters and biologists and everything that such an expedition demands. And here's warning that not one will get on, even though her qualifications are exactly as imposing, and more so, than those of male competitors for the berth.

We talk about this modern world and the modern woman, but in the final analysis she has to fight about as hard to cash in on our own capacities as her mother and grandmother did!

WHAT OF IT?

Charges that communism is being taught in various colleges of the country provoked a heated battle at the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. Several colleges were mentioned by name for the inclusion of communism in the curriculum. And what of it? Personally, whatever my convictions on the worth or worthlessness of communism, anarchy, socialism, or any ism, I certainly would not attend any institution of learning which insisted that I be kept in ignorance of theories and philosophies which the school believed were not worth while.

HOW LONG SINCE?

How long since schools have sponsored the worth of every philosophy, every scheme of logic, every social panacea, every economic scheme taught on the campus? Education gives the student the facts; education trains a mind to be capable of dealing with facts and sifting the dross. Why shouldn't communism be taught as well as the difference between the Republican and Democratic parties?

LUCKY LILLIE

Lillie Lehmann, whose name once in the musical world was all that Marla Jerlitz's or Bori's or Ponselle's is today, is 80. But at 80 she still teaches music, playing her pupils' accompaniments and singing the exercises for them. She begins her day at 7 and works steadily on into the evening. Lillie Lehmann much more than for the mere fact that in her youth she knew power and glory.

To be able to live abundantly to the very end of the chapter is denied most of us, and lucky the Lillie Lehmanns whose physical and mental resources permit it.

THE TINYMITES STORY BY HAL COCHRAN PICTURES BY KNICK REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

When Santa saw the Tinymites in their new suits he began to grin. "You look just fine," said he, "although they fit you rather tight." "Oh, we don't mind that," Scouty cried. "As long as we have crawled inside these funny little outfits, they will have to be all right. "All we want now is work to do, and we will prove we're clever, too. Just tell us where to go, and what to start in making first. Please don't be backward, Santa Claus. Bring on your hammers and your saws. We'll try to do our best, although it may look like our worst."

"Well, you're as kind as you can be," said Santa. "But it seems to me that first I'd better feed you. Do you think that you could eat?" "Oh! Could we?" Clowny loudly cried. "I feel an empty spot inside, and anything you'd give us for lunch would be a treat."

So Santa took them to a spot where they found fine soup, piping hot. 'Twas served in little bowls, and every Tiny had his share. When this was finished, Santa said, "And now we'll have some jam and bread, and for dessert I'll give you all a nice big yellow pear."

At last they finished with their meal, and Coppy said, "Now we all feel like getting lots of exercise." "All right," old Santa said. "Right down the street there is a shop, and that's the little place we'll stop." As soon as they were at the place, the whole bunch walked inside.

"Now this," said Santa, "is the place where every dolly gets its face. We put the head and shoulders on the bodies last of all. But first we paint the faces bright so all the dolls will look all right. Get busy now at painting, but don't let the paint pots fall."

LILAC TIME OPENS AT YOST BROADWAY

Ghostly hands of the World war are paying interest on the debt it owes one of its heroes.

The story is that of Capt. Stanley C. Campbell, whose shattered body and nerves have been made whole again in Hollywood. Strangely, and justly, the very war which exacted so costly a toll is providing the means for his "comeback."

For Capt. Campbell, Canadian-born University of Michigan boy who shot down ten German combat planes and eight balloons, who was decorated with the Medal Militaire by France for capturing a machine gun emplacement, whose wounds cost him a total of four years in hospital, makes his living by helping directors avoid technical mistakes in the filming of motion pictures of the war.

Capt. Campbell refuses to be called a hero.

No Heroes or Cowards
"There were no heroes in France," he says, "and no cowards. One did what was to be done, or, if one's nerves cracked under the strain, one was shot for cowardice, but mercifully and justly placed in hospital and treated for shell shock."

Capt. Campbell's latest technical advisory work was made in conjunction with that of Capt. L. J. S. Scott, a fellow officer of the Royal Flying Corps, during the filming of "Lilac Time," which brings the colorful R. F. C. into its own. "Lilac Time," First National's super production starring Colleen Moore, was nearly a year in preparation and filming. It comes to the Yost Broadway theater tonight.

Natural pride and knowledge of the alertness of the screen public caused John McCormick, producer of Miss Moore's pictures, and George Fitzmaurice, director, to make the selection of the best available technical advice their first move in the producing of "Lilac Time." Although both planned to make the war merely a background for what they considered the most beautiful romance either had ever read, they wanted to make such war scenes as would be used, starkly real.

Staff of Technical Advisers

And that explaining the presence of Capt. Scott and Capt. Campbell, of the Royal Flying Corps; of Lieut. Robert du Couedic, of the Twenty-sixth Blue Devils and of the 14th French flying squadron; of Lieut. Rudolph Schad, fourthteenth plane of Richtofen's Flying Circus; of Lieut. Richard Grace, of the Lafayette Escadrille, and of a dozen other battle-baptized young veterans.

Most of these men appear on the screen in "Lilac Time," but only in small and inconspicuous roles. Ten years ago at the time of the story, these men were seventeen, or eighteen or nineteen—reckless, laughing youngsters doing their desperate share in the industry of war.

WEST END

A picture of many laughs and some moments of real pathos, the Tiffany production, "The Princess From Hoboken," was shown here for the first time yesterday before a crowded house who hugely enjoyed the many humorous situations that followed each other in rapid succession. The Tiffany picture has been produced on a lavish scale and evidently no expense was spared in so far as cast and production was concerned.

The farcical situations and various complications are caused by the fact that a little Irish waitress in a Hoboken lunchroom is unexpectedly forced to take the place of a Russian Princess who, touted as a beautiful woman, turns out to be a "dud." Despite the fact that our heroine is typically Irish, she is able to fool her Cabaret public until she is unmasked by a clever and designing Russian Prince, who penetrates the little waitress' disguise and threatens to expose her. This is foiled by the young and handsome Irish lad who comes to her rescue much to the discomfort of the villain and for the consummation of their happiness.

"The Princess From Hoboken" will continue to be the feature attraction at the West End theater for two more days.

SECURED AUTO ON FICTITIOUS CHECK, CHARGE

ANAHEIM, Dec. 12.—Police officers are trying to locate a man who gave his name as J. M. Souza, and his address as Hollywood when he presented a check for $600 as first payment on a car which he purchased of the Standard Motor company, 328 West Center street.

The check, which was then returned to the motor company, was drawn on the Arizona Dairy bank, Hynes. The man gave his occupation as a dairyman and gave a number of references which were not investigated. He has dark hair and brown eyes and about five feet and two inches in height and 27 or 28 years of age.

The car which the man took with him was a grey sedan. A young woman apparently accompanied Souza at the time of his purchase. A warrant has been issued charging Souza with giving a fictitious check.

COSTA MESA CLASS WILL ASSIST NEEDY

COSTA MESA, Dec. 12.—Members of the Loyal Workers class of the Community church staged their annual Christmas party at the church Monday evening. The Loyal Workers will play Santa Claus to a number of poor families in the district. It was decided at the meeting.

Members of the class presented Mrs. Grov S. Brown, the class teacher, with a purse. LeRoy Anderson was Santa Claus at the party. More than 60 persons were present. Following the distribution of presents refreshments were served.

Christmas Topic At Club Meeting

ORANGE, Dec. 12.—"Christmas" was the topic for speakers at the regular meeting of the toastmistress' section of Woman's club this week. Mrs. Alfred Halleck spoke on "What Are You Giving for Christmas?" Mrs. Jess Coe talked on "Is There a Santa Claus?" Mrs. Earle Pierce Cochran spoke on "What Will You Give Him?" The proposed new calendar was discussed by Mrs. C. F. Rowell.

R. L. Taylor, teacher of oral English at the Orange union high school was present and spoke on public speaking. Lucien Flippin, also a guest of the club, gave an informal talk. Mrs. Kenneth Lilly, of Bakersfield, a house guest of Mrs. Donald Smiley, was a guest of the section. Twenty-three members were present.

The next meeting of the club will be held on January 14. Mrs. Earl Crawford is the president of the organization.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into "flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub Musterole on the congested parts, see how quickly it brings relief. As effective as the messy old mustard plaster.

Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

At the first sign of a cold in the head take Musterole Cold Tablets. They usually give prompt relief.

Better than a mustard plaster

Boat Dashed To Bits On West Jetty

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 12.—High winds and a heavy sea caused the destruction here yesterday of the Sea Wolf, 40-foot fishing boat owned by J. K. Smith, owner of a fishing pier off the Newport Beach pier.

The boat was torn from its moorings near the Newport pier and carried down the coast and dashed against the west jetty at the harbor entrance. It was crushed to bits in a few minutes.

No one was aboard the boat at the time. The Sea Wolf has been used to carry passengers to the fishing pier off the Newport pier. It was valued at between $2000 and $3000, according to reports, and was said to have been fully insured.

BREA REBEKAH LODGE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

BREA, Dec. 12.—Election of officers for the coming term of six months occupied the attention of Trinity Rebekah members at their regular meeting Monday night. Officers elected are as follows: Mrs. Mary Edmonson, past noble grand; Mrs. Florence Horrocks, noble grand; Mrs. Pearl Dutton, vice grand; Mrs. Minnie Epla, recording secretary; Mrs. Florence Jones, financial secretary; Mrs. Maude Rist, treasurer; George Beer, trustee to succeed himself, for a term of 18 months.

Installation of officers will take place in January. Appointive officers will be named later by the incoming noble grand.

Members voted to give a benefit dinner for the Odd Fellows lodge of Brea on the evening of January 7, the dinner to be given in the lodge dining room and to be served from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock. Trinity members will present the annual Christmas program in the lodge rooms next Monday night, according to the program chairman, Mrs. Minnie Epla. There will be the usual Christmas tree and the gifts and candy for the kiddies and several interesting singing and reading numbers. All Rebekahs and Odd Fellows and their families are invited to attend.

PLAN YULE PARTY FOR MESA NEEDY

COSTA MESA, Dec. 12.—Members of the Young People's class of the Community church will stage a special Christmas party for poor of the district December 21, it was reported today. Fruits, canned foods, pies and cakes will be brought to the party by the young people and later distributed to the needy families. Toys and other playthings for the poor children of the district will be collected by the class.

Boat Is Beached At San Clemente

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 12.—The fishing boat, Mabel, a 40-foot craft, was beached here Monday night. The ship, captained by Percival Marsh, and registered at San Pedro, was thrown high and dry on the beach about a quarter of a mile south of the pier.

Captain Marsh stated yesterday that he would contract to have the ship floated and taken to Newport for repairs. He will bring it back to San Clemente to take care of fishing parties over the Christmas holidays and the regular anglers of the Spanish village.

AUTHOR FIGHTS BLINDNESS TO GAIN SUCCESS

By MRS. U. R. PHILLIPS
LA HABRA, Dec. 12.—With the coming of J. Breckenridge Ellis, noted Missouri author, to La Habra is revealed the story of the life of the author. He has been confined to a wheel chair ever since he was eighteen months old, when he was stricken with spinal meningitis.

But despite this handicap the author is still cheerful as he goes through life making hundreds of friends. He conducts a children's page each week in a children's paper.

Part of his life Mr. Ellis was nearly blind and was compelled to sit in a darkened room with a screen in front of him. He took up the Braille system and mastered it to the extent that with the index finger he traced the raised surfaces and read Mark Twain, Shakespeare and other works aloud to his mother.

His mother has been the constant companion of her son. He was president of the Missouri Writers' guild for a number of years. He has written 25 books.

A desire to read books in the original rather than after they were translated led him to teach himself to read French and German. He had just started to read Italian when his eyes failed and he was forced to have his father read them to him. The author has traveled in England, France and Italy, Mexico and other countries.

When only eight years old Ellis wrote an encyclopedia of the Bible which contained 16 printed pages. Like the average youth, Ellis became engrossed in the Nick Carter stories, history of the James boys and other thrillers. Then he began a series of bandit stories which he would write for his own amusement and then hide until he had a whole trunk full.

At the age of 15 Ellis began writing novels and for the next 11 years he did not sell a story.

Some Biblical fiction was the first to be accepted by publishers and in 1900, 1901 and 1902 came "Dread and Fear of Kings," "Holland Wolves" and "The Storck's Nest," which Mary Miles Minter starred in. This was his first novel to be adapted to the screen. Other books which have been adapted to the screen included "The Love Hunter," "Fran," "Cinderella of the Hills," "Agnes of the Bad Lands" and "Lahoma."

Despite the success of "Fran," Ellis believes his greatest book is yet unwritten.

Anaheim Club Will Speak On Orange County Planning

PLACENTIA, Dec. 12.—Tom Picklerick, secretary of the Placentia chamber of commerce, and secretary of the planning committee of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, will give a talk on the proposed Orange county planning commission before the Business and Professional Women's club, Anaheim, Thursday noon at the Elks club.

Man Released from Jail On $100 Bail

ANAHEIM, Dec. 12.—William Rice, alias John Henry Murphy, George Murphy, William Carney, Moses Levi, John Ryan and William Henry, were released from the Anaheim jail yesterday after furnishing bail of $100. Bail was reduced from $500.

Rice was arrested Saturday on a vagrancy charge. He will be tried on this charge December 20 at 10 o'clock.

According to police the man has been arrested on various charges in a number of cities of the nation but has never been convicted. Rice is 60 years of age and says he is a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

Clean-up Week Slated For San Clemente

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 12.—Daniel Mulholland, president of the San Clemente Chamber of Commerce, announced last night that starting December 17 the citizens of the Spanish village will be asked to observe clean-up week. The drive is to make the Spanish village spick and span for the holidays.

Members of the city council have endorsed the plan. The chief of police, Forest J. Eaton, and members of the council will assist the chamber of commerce in making the drive a success.

C. OF C. NAMES COMMITTEE ON NEW DIRECTORS

PLACENTIA, Dec. 12.—A committee comprising E. A. Eisenacher, chairman; L. C. Aldridge and Dr. F. J. Yerke was appointed by the A. S. Bradford, president of the Placentia Chamber of Commerce at the weekly luncheon yesterday, to nominate directors for the coming year.

The members whose terms expire and who, because of having completed three year terms, are ineligible for re-election are John Tuffree, Ralph McFadden and Elmer Hochstein.

Richard White, H. O. Easton, W. M. Bradford and Mrs. Nellie M. Cline, who are completing the terms of office vacated by resignations, are eligible for re-election. The nominating committee will report at the next regular meeting on December 18.

A. S. Bradford gave a short report of the United States Chamber of Commerce meeting at Pasadena, where he heard President William Butterworth talk on the crisis facing the farmers. Tom Picklerick reported, in the absence of Mrs. Nellie M. Cline, chairman of the civics committee, that the Native Daughters of the Golden West, Grace parlor No. 242, have definitely abandoned the idea of keeping as a landmark the old school house of 1874, that now stands on the McKee place at the intersection of Placentia and Chapman avenues. A picture has been taken which will be enlarged and tinted and a copy placed in both the Bradford avenue and Baker street schools.

When the report of the library committee was called for, Mrs. T. L. McFadden, president of the library board, requested that before the report was given, that the directors of the chamber arrange that the report of the committee be withheld from the daily newspapers until the Placentia Courier had published the account.

After considerable discussion it was moved by Louis Jacobson and seconded by Ralph McFadden "that the report of the library committee not be given to the daily papers until the local paper has used it first."

The motion was carried on vote of the directors.

BREA

BREA, Dec. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Close are enjoying having with them Mrs. Close's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Mullenberg, of Manchester South Dakota, who arrived the first of the week and will remain in Southern California for some time.

Miss Margaret Lackey, dispatch clerk in the local postoffice, has been off duty for several days because of the prevailing epidemic. Mrs. Elsie LaGrate is assisting in the office during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Russell received a visit this week from Mrs. Russell's niece and nephew, Mrs. Rolla Fryer and John Russell, of Benton Arbor, Mich. Others in the party were Mr. Fryer and their 11-year-old son, Dick. They are spending the winter in California and are settled for the present in Whittier.

Mrs. Jessie Whitmer motored Monday from her home in Santa Barbara, returning today. While here Mrs. Whitmer visited Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lynes and looked after business pertaining to rental property.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Logsdon are happy over the arrival of a seven and a half pound daughter, born to them December 11 at the Snively maternity home here. The tiny girl is the first child in the home as well as the first grandchild on both the maternal and paternal side of the family. She has been named Beverly Ann. Mrs. Charlotte Smalley, of this city, is the mother of Mr. Logsdon.

Mrs. Clara Burquist and Mrs. Wayne Stultiff are assisting in the Gnaggy department store.

GOES ON VACATION

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 12.—Austin Brown, well known Balboa resident, left yesterday by auto for a two months vacation trip in British Columbia.

Boy Scouts In Program On Thursday

COSTA MESA, Dec. 12.—Local Boy Scouts will present an illustrated Scoutcraft program at a special meeting in the Costa Mesa church, it was reported today by Lloyd Willcutt, Scoutmaster. The program will open at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night.

George G. Walker, new Scout executive in Orange county, will speak at the meeting Thursday night. The affair is open to the public. Every member of the troop will take part in the affair.

LAUNCH DRIVE FOR FUNDS IN BREA SECTION

BREA, Dec. 12.—Chester E. Hawk, of Santa Ana, was the speaker at the meeting which opened the Community chest drive in the Brea-Olinda district this week. E. H. Peterkin, chairman of the board of directors, introduced the speaker and presided at the meeting, which was held in the study hall of the high school.

Methods of procedure in securing funds and the advantages of the Community chest were told by Hawk.

The city of Brea has been divided into 15 working blocks and captains with six workers under them have been assigned to the different districts. Outside districts of Brea canyon, Olinda, Stewart station and scattered old leases are under the direction of captains.

Pledge books, red feathers and window cards were given the captains for distribution.

BY-LAWS ADOPTED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

BREA, Dec. 12.—Final reading of the by-laws of the Brea Woman's club was effected before a gathering of the members in the club rooms yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Clara Close, president, in the chair. Following the reading, the amended by-laws were adopted and the committee, Mrs. Julia Schweitzer, Mrs. Maybelle Kuenzli and Mrs. Beatrice Livingston, instructed to prepare a revised copy for the recording secretary.

Community singing of Christmas carols and a timely reading by Mrs. Close, "Why the Chimes Rang," concluded the program. Mrs. Close urged the members to purchase Christmas seals. Mrs. Mollie White, who has visited the health camp, praised it.

The amended by-laws provide for the election of officers in May instead of in March, with the executive board meeting held preceding the first meeting of each month.

TUSTIN

TUSTIN, Dec. 12.—P. W. Hirschberg, arrested December 6 for exceeding the speed limit, was fined $20 in the police court of Tustin yesterday. Alfred Cornwell was fined $15 in the same court for speeding.

The county health center held a conference Tuesday afternoon in the kindergarten room of the grammar school at which Dr. Sutherland and the county nurse were present to examine babies brought by mothers to the center. The regular meeting of the grammar school P.-T. A. will be held Thursday afternoon in the kindergarten room.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Tustin Methodist church will hold a cooked food sale next Saturday in the Tustin building opposite the post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rich, of Union City, Ind., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greenwood. Mr. Rich is a brother of Mrs. Greenwood. They will spend the winter in California.

Mrs. A. E. Johnson, of Manhattan Beach, and uncle, R. J. Adair, of Wilcox, Ariz., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Lindsey. Mrs. Tatum and her granddaughter, Vivian Cook, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cook, are recovering from their recent illness.

P. E. DEPOT IS SUGGESTED FOR SAN CLEMENTE

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 12.—The board of directors of the San Clemente Chamber of Commerce yesterday opened a campaign to secure a Pacific Electric station for the Spanish Village. The Pacific Electric has extended its line to Laguna Beach, using motor busses to carry passengers from that city to Newport, where connections are to be made with the electric train to Los Angeles and other points.

At the same time the directors instructed Capt. H. H. Hammer to carry on the campaign already started to secure for this city a depot on the Santa Fe line.

The board of directors voted to have the church committee take over all funds thus far collected for the building of a community church in the Spanish village. This committee will start a drive to complete the fund so that a church can be erected here in the near future. On this committee, of which Ed Bartlett is chairman, are Thomas F. Murphy, mayor; Judge L. G. Nattkemper, William Gibson, Fred Warner and Virgil Westbrook.

It was voted that the salary of Secretary Hammer be raised to $250 a month. The secretary was instructed to ask the city council what could be done to secure street lights for Del Mar and the State highway for a block on each side of Del Mar.

A. Travaglini reported that a Christmas tree 20 feet in height was to be secured for the holiday celebration. Ole Hanson Jr., in charge of decorations, said that he had secured figures on the cost of decorating the tree and presents for all San Clemente children will be secured by the Kiwanis committee headed by Dr. Garnet B. Grant, president; Hal Warner, trustee, and Dr. H. E. Baird, secretary.

S. A. BROKER TALKS BEFORE REALTORS

ORANGE, Dec. 12.—Methods of securing new members and building up of the membership of the California Real Estate association to the desired number of 5000 in 1929 were the topics discussed by F. C. Pope, of Santa Ana, at a meeting of the Orange Realty board in the American Legion clubhouse here yesterday.

Pope, a vice president of the state association, told the realty men of legislation that will come before the state legislature this winter. About 30 members were present. The meeting was in charge of F. A. Hallman, president.

Seal Beach Woman Eastern Star Head

SEAL BEACH, Dec. 12.—Mrs. D. D. Lawhead, of Seal Beach, was installed as worthy matron of the Seal Beach chapter of the Eastern Star last evening in Norwalk. Other members of the chapter who were in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wheat, Mayor and Mrs. R. E. Dole, Mrs. Marcia Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. P. Proctor, Mrs. Annie M. Orr, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. E. K. Kirby, Mrs. Sam Newnes, Mrs. Elmer Hochstein, Mrs. Jack McDonald, Mrs. Kate Hays, Mrs. Charles Lee and the guest of honor, Mrs. Rafidol.

St. Mary's Altar society of Fullerton is giving a benefit card party on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in St. Mary's hall. The affair is in charge of the Catholic women of Placentia and Mrs. Edward Dewpew is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Nellie Cline.

Both "500" and bridge will be played and the prizes are a turkey, six chickens, four pair of aquabs and six rabbits.

Plan Organ Program At Mesa Dec. 23

COSTA MESA, Dec. 12.—The new pipe organ being installed in the Costa Mesa Community church will be dedicated at a special service December 23, it was announced today by the Rev. Lyman R. Bayard, pastor. The Rev. Mr. Bayard will play the organ on that day.

A special recital in honor of the Women's Friday Afternoon club will be given at the church by the Rev. Mr. Bayard December 31.

A watch service will be held in the church the night of December 31 and plans are being made for an elaborate program.

EDUCATOR IN SPEECH BEFORE SERVICE GROUP

FULLERTON, Dec. 12.—Talking on "Objectives in Modern Education," Richard Warner Borst, head of the English department of Fullerton union high school and junior college, delivered the main address before members of the Fullerton Lions club at the regular weekly luncheon in the California hotel yesterday.

Drawing from his own experience, Borst told of changes in methods and aims of teaching during the past few years. Among the important factors now he classed economy in the investment of one's life, maximum of efficiency with a minimum of effort, the ability to think and intellectual independence.

Plans for the Christmas party to be held at the Orange county health camp on Tuesday were discussed and completed. Sam Taylor and Wendell Irwin are in charge of the Christmas tree and Taylor will act as Santa Claus to the kiddies at the camp.

A generous donation to the camp's funds and Christmas treats are planned by the club.

Charles Fallert, who has just returned from his honeymoon trip, was presented with a coffee set, a gift from the club.

Phil Goodwin was appointed lion tamer to succeed Frank Day, a resigned member.

Music included piano duets by Phil Benson and Billy Heger.

Holiday Program For Beach Women

SEAL BEACH, Dec. 12.—The holiday treat for the Women's club will be a pot luck dinner to be served at noon December 27 in the club rooms. Each guest is requested to bring a gift, not to exceed 25 cents in value. It will be placed in the grab bag.

CHILD IS BURIED

ANAHEIM, Dec. 12.—Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Hilgenfeld and Rollins funeral chapel for Earl Lloyd Johnson, 20-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, La Habra. The child passed away Monday after a brief illness. The services were conducted by the Rev. E. M. Hewlett of the Baptist church of La Habra.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

BIG INCREASE IN SHIPMENTS IS PREDICTED

FULLERTON, Dec. 12.—With a big increase over last year, a naval crop of about 350 cars will be shipped from district by the Northern Orange County Citrus exchange, it was stated today by Dale R. King, manager.

With approximately 500 acres in bearing, the crop this year will total 170 cars more than last year and about 50 cars or 15 per cent more than two years ago, a normal year.

While the oranges are coloring up well, the size is rather small and the sugar content is below normal, King said. At the present time, the sugar content is ranging from 6.3 and 7.2 to 1 while the necessary ratio must be at least 8 to 1. However, within the next two weeks the oranges will develop more both in size and sugar content, King believes.

Prices are low on the eastern markets, due to the heavy naval shipments from the Northern California orange districts, especially in Tulare county, and also to the natural lull between Thanksgiving and Christmas, King said. Within the next week prices should pick up considerably with the regular Christmas buying only a week away.

All navels in this section will be picked within the period of December 24 to February 20, according to King.

LIONS INVITED TO LUNCHEON AT CAMP

COSTA MESA, Dec. 12.—Members of the local Lions club may join the Fullerton Lions at luncheon at the Orange county health camp next Tuesday noon, it was reported today. Dr. C. G. Huston, president of the local club, read an invitation to the local club to attend the luncheon at yesterday's meeting. Several members expressed themselves as wishing to attend the meeting.

Earl Patterson and Alvin E. Block will represent the local club at the midwinter meeting of officers in Fresno January 18 and 19.

Reports were given by C. W. TeVink, Earl Patterson, Judge C. B. Diehl and Fenton Chaplin on the baseball games played by the club.

ADVISE 3 NEW STATE PENAL INSTITUTIONS

By HOMER L. ROBERTS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
(Special to The Register)

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 12.—Three new California penal institutions will emerge from the coming session of the state legislature, if favorable action is taken upon recommendations to be made by legislative investigating commissions.

The new institutions to be suggested are:

1. New state prison for Southern California, to be located in Los Angeles county.

2. New state prison for women offenders, to be located at Delhi, Merced county.

3. New "two-way" institution (between the present state reform school and the state prison) where persons who are not hardened criminals may be restored to society quickly, or lodged behind the bars.

Governor Young is known to favor the latter institution, as a result of his recent conference with Dr. Herman Adler of Chicago, nationally-known criminologist. Such an institution, Dr. Adler pointed out, would prevent youths sent to prison for the first time from associating with case-hardened veggs and gangsters for whom there is no hope.

More than $100,000 annually would be saved by the state in transporting prisoners from Southern California to San Quentin or Folsom prisons. The legislative commission studying the proposed prison will recommend its location in Los Angeles county, the United Press is informed.

Little doubt now exists that the legislature will authorize a separate prison for women convicts. At present, such convicts are housed in a separate building at San Quentin prison.

Under the commission's plan, the new prison will be in the nature of a great industrial plant, where the inmates will be required to work eight hours a day. The whole principle of the institution will be based upon "the healthful and reforming influence of hard work," the commission declares.

When the women vacate their San Quentin quarters, the building might be used for the intermediate institution between the reform school and prison, Governor Young has observed. It is considered likely that, if no provision is made for erecting the "two-way" institution, the San Quentin building for women will be utilized for the purpose.

Big Traffic Gain For Air Express

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 12.—(UP)—Each month brings a substantial increase in traffic to the Western Air Express, it was apparent here today from a report issued by officials of the company.

Mail handled during October totaled 120,160 pieces more than that of the preceding month.

A comparison of traffic records for 1928 and those for 1928 up to November shows the company handled 12 times as many passengers during the first 10 months of the present year as during the entire year of 1926.

THE NEBBS—Poor "Kid"

GOOD MORNING, MRS. NEBB. WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE COMING MARRIAGE? IT LOOKS LIKE YOUR HUSBAND IS GOING TO LOSE A FORTUNE. MR. POTTS TOLD ME AT ONE TIME THAT HE WAS HIS SOLE HEIR.

IT LOOKS LIKE WE ARE BOTH GOING TO LOSE IT. I DON'T WANT A FORTUNE AT THE EXPENSE OF HIS HAPPINESS.

SHE CAN HAVE HIM—FORTUNE AND EVERYTHING—SHE'LL HAVE TO WAIT UNTIL HE DIES TO GET IT. HE SPENDS MONEY LIKE SAP RUSHES OUT OF A DEAD TREE.

OH, I DON'T KNOW. THE RIGHT WOMAN CAN GET ANYTHING FROM HIM—HE BOUGHT HER A GORGEOUS SQUARE DIAMOND FOR $1000. I'M GLAD HE'S MARRYING HER—SHE'S UP-TO-DATE AND THIS TOWN NEEDS SOME UP-TO-DATE WOMEN. SHE'S AHEAD OF THE CALENDAR A YEAR—MOST OF THE WOMEN WERE COULD REHEARSE THE LANDING OF THE PILGRIMS WITHOUT CHANGING COSTUME.

I GUESS IT SERVES ME RIGHT—I GAVE HER THE CHANCE TO TELL ME THOSE THINGS—I WISH I COULD GO AWAY FROM THIS TOWN SO FAR THAT IF I GOT LONESOME, IT WOULD TAKE THE REST OF MY LIFE TO GET BACK.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

How old are you? That is a painful question that most of us occasionally are called upon to face. There is solace, however, in observations of the activities of other people, many even older than we are. Everyone is familiar with the activity which marked the last years of Sarah Bernhardt's life. She astonished everyone with her activity when it would seem that the infirmities of old age would have hampered her.

Without seeing certain people we naturally suppose them to be young because of their youthfulness of thought; their ability to keep abreast of the times; the complete absence of the ossification or at least conservatism which so frequently takes place in the mind and thought of old people. There are some individuals who will probably never know an "old age." They are the ones who are getting the most out of life; not the ones who retire at an early age in order to covet their remaining days. Such have little to live for but memories.

At the age of fifty-three a governor of one of the New England states entered Yale to study law. It is safe to say that he didn't figure: "Well, I'm fifty-three, getting along, what is the use of trying to learn any more, better just enjoy my remaining days." No, he figures that he has probably at least twenty years more to live. As long a time yet before him as had transpired when he reached the age of twenty and felt himself to be a man, with twenty long years behind him. It is a wonderful age. Such men as Georges Clemenceau and countless others in our own communities are as young in spirit and outlook as many who have not had the years of experience and observation which makes the judgment of the older man so valuable.

An army chaplain in Honolulu announced the other day that a hula dance would be a feature of the Sunday evening religious service. Join the army and see the world.

DATE SET FOR REDISTRICTING BILL

The redistricting bill before Congress is to be reported out of the house census committee on Friday. January 8th has been tentatively set to take it up for discussion. This will only leave the remaining portion of January and February for it to run the gauntlet to pass the House and the Senate. With the amount of legislation before the national body and the determination on the part of those who do not want to have their districts disturbed, serious doubt is spelled as to whether this bill will finally be enacted.

Congress has failed to carry out the provision of the Constitution in redistricting the country, and there is today the greatest inequality in representation in our lower house as far as population is concerned. It is almost equal to the misrepresentation in the upper house from the standpoint of population.

The sum of $675,000,000 in stocks and bonds was moved from one building to another in New York City in broad daylight. Rumors that it was only a night club changing its address were unfounded.

PROVISION FOR NEXT CENSUS

A bill has been introduced into Congress providing for the taking of the next decennial census. One of the proposed changes over previous years is that the census shall be started in '29 instead of '30, and that the census of agriculture and population shall be taken as of November 1, 1929 instead of May 1, 1930.

The appropriations for this census run into nearly $25,000,000 for the fiscal year 1930; $8,500,000 for 1931, and $6,250,000 for 1932. We are getting to be a big nation. Considering the total amount of money appropriated by this bill for the census on the basis of the population at the origin of our government, it would have provided about $12.00 for each man, woman, and child.

Heroes Just the Same

Imperial Valley Press

Not all the nation's heroes break into headlines in the papers, are marched through New York's Broadway in a shower of paper bits, or are tendered moving picture contracts at fabulous salaries.

Daily there are men and women in all parts of the country, doing heroic acts which are heard of by very few. They risk their lives to save some other's and though their lives may be as dear to them as they are to one upon whom the nation bestows honor, there is little fuss made over them. Perhaps they do not want it. Usually the person who unselfishly risks his own life is the type that cares nothing about the adulation of the multitude. All this being preamble to the case of Miss Ruth Gilmore and Pete Bailey. The former is a trained nurse in Ogden. The latter is a taxi driver in the same city.

Last week Miss Gilmore was called out to take care of a family stricken with influenza in an old camp some fifty or more miles from Ogden. En route they encountered a severe snowstorm and extreme cold weather. What would ordinarily have been a trip of several hours extended into a terrific fight against the elements, lasting more than a day and a night.

Becoming lost in a big snow bank, the nurse and the taxi driver were rescued by a rancher, who took them to his home, thawed them out and tried to persuade them to return to civilization. Instead the nurse and the taxi driver insisted he should help them get to the stricken family. The rancher drove them as near the oil camp as he could.

The last four miles of the journey were made afoot through heavy snowbanks in a below zero temperature.

There were plenty of reasons why the nurse and the taxi driver should have given up their journey were it not for the fact that they are the type that is loyal to an ideal. The nurse knew her services were needed by the family that had sent for her, and her training demanded that she exhaust every effort to answer the call. The taxi driver felt it his duty to deliver his passenger at her destination and any interfering obstacle must be overcome.

It is not likely there will be any brass bands, parades, medals or receptions for Miss Gilmore and Pete Bailey. Their compensation, if they think of compensation at all, is in the knowledge they have within themselves of a difficult job well done. And though the world may take no notice of them, to one little family at least they will always remain the world's greatest heroes.

WE LIVE AND LEARN

I never knew what gnus would do
When they were goaded to a rage;
The only gnu I ever knew
Were on the cross word puzzle page.
I thought perhaps the gnu might be
Some sort of fish or snake or bird,
For many years the gnu to me
Was only a three letter word.

But from the tidings of the day
I learn that an ill-tempered gnu
Broke down a fence and got away
And gored the keeper of a zoo.
And by this means is knowledge born
For I am well persuaded now
That every gnu must have a horn
And be some sort of ox or cow.

I don't know what a moa is,
I only vaguely can surmise
What haunts on land or sea are his
Or if he walks, or creeps or flies.
But some day one may break his coop
Rush forth with a long rangy stride,
And knock his keeper for a loop;
And then I'll have him classified.

Thus day by day does knowledge grow,
The time may not be very far
When, reader, you and I shall know
What aaks and yaks and goas are.
If diligently we engage
In its intensive contemplation,
We'll find the cross word puzzle page
A means of higher education.

MORE DETECTIVE STORIES

I am an omnivorous reader of detective and mystery stories. Perhaps it may be of help to other readers of the same sort to get my personal rating of some of the books I read last summer.

They are marked below on the scale of one hundred.

First, there are some books by Edgar Wallace, generally an entertaining and satisfactory author. They are not especially new, but I happen to have read them recently. I would rate his books about as follows:

"The Terrible People" is about the best I have seen this summer, and I rate it at ninety.
"The Black Abbot," eighty-five.
"The Missing Millions," eighty.
"We Shall See," eighty.
"The Joker," seventy-five.
"The Brigand," seventy.
"The Green Archer," eighty.
"Sanders," fifty.

Then there is an English writer who goes by the name of Sapper. I have read two of his books: "Jim Maitland," which I rate at ninety, and "The Third Round," at seventy-five.

There are six books by R. Austin Freeman.
"The Magic Casket," a collection of short stories about Dr. Thorndyke, is the best, eighty.
"The Mystery of Angelina Frood," seventy-five.
"John Thorndyke's Cases," eighty.
"The Great Portrait Mystery," seventy-five.
"Helen Vardon's Confession," seventy-five.
"The Unwilling Adventurer," seventy.

Oppenheim is a prolific and excellent story-teller, although his stories affect elegance. Most of his characters have lots of money and gamble at Monte Carlo.
Among them are: "The Passionate Quest," eighty-five; "The Golden Web," "The Wrath to Come," and "The Golden Beast," eighty each.

"The Mystery at Lynde Sands," by Conington, sixty.
"The Malaret Mystery," by Miss Hartley, eighty.
"Claim Number One," by Ogden, fifty.

Tastes differ, and others may rate these books differently. I give my rating for what it is worth.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

THE ART OF WEASELING

Twenty-eight years ago, in the June, 1900, issue of The Century Magazine, Stewart Chapin made the first literary use that has come to my attention of the now famous phrase, "weasel words," which the average American thinks Theodore Roosevelt coined, although he never claimed its authorship.

"Weasel Words," says a paragraph in the Chapin story, "are words that suck the life out of the words next to them, just as a weasel sucks an egg and leaves the shell. If you heft the egg afterwards it's as light as a feather, and not very filling when you are hungry, but a basketful of them would make quite a show, and would bamboozle the unwary. I know them well, and mighty useful they are, too. Although the gentleman couldn't write much of a platform, he's an expert on weaseling. I've seen him take his pen and go through a proposed plank or resolution and weasel every flatfooted word in it. Then the weasel word pleases one man and the word that has been weaseled pleases another."

Sixteen years afterward, Theodore Roosevelt, speaking in St. Louis on May 31, 1916, made this phase a part of the common speech of America by using it in an attack on Woodrow Wilson's suggestion of universal voluntary training.

"In connection with the word training," said Mr. Roosevelt, "the words universal voluntary have exactly the same effect an acid has on an alkali—a neutralizing effect. One of our defects as a nation is a tendency to use what have been called weasel words. When a weasel sucks eggs, the meat is sucked out of the egg. If you use a weasel word after another there is nothing left of the other. Now, you can have universal training, or you can have voluntary training, but when you use the word universal to qualify the word voluntary you are using a weasel word; it has sucked all the meaning out of universal."

The art of weaseling is a growing art in American public life. Our language is more than an expression of our thought; it is sometimes cause as well as result.

The way we think may determine the way we talk, but it is also true that the way we talk has a lot to do with the way we think.

A nation of sloven and inaccurate talkers is likely to be a nation of sloven and inaccurate thinkers.

A nation that tolerates weaseling on the part of its leaders will, in time, find itself an insincere people led by insincere leaders.

We need a League to Enforce Flatfooted Words!

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

THE FAT CHILD

"Now how can you stand there telling me that Toby is not healthy when you can see him fairly bursting with fat?" demanded Mrs. Tubby. "Now I ask you that. Him fairly bursting with fat and you telling me he isn't well nourished. You might find better use for your time. Indeed you might."

"But Mrs. Tubby—" "If all you have to say is that Toby is undernourished I can soon answer you. He isn't. Now what do you say to that?" "He is undernourished. He's not getting enough green vegetables for one thing. He needs to eat lettuce and tomatoes and—" "But my dear, he doesn't like vegetables. He likes meat and potatoes and butter and milk. But no vegetables. And he's thriving. You can't tell me my own eyes are wrong. Isn't he the fattest child on the block?"

He was the fattest child on the block. In two blocks. In all the blocks around there was no fatter child. His nutrition was wrong from beginning to end. His glands were not functioning well. His digestive functions were slow and sad. But he was fat. Fatness or leanness is not a safe guide in judging the health of children. Their weight in relation to their height MAY be a basis for judging, and it may not. There are other signs to be considered. Does the child enjoy living? If he does that's a very good sign. It is almost all that is necessary but to make assurance doubly sure, go on a little farther.

Does he laugh heartily at the right things? Does he eat without fussing? Does he eat a varied diet with good appetite? Are his eliminatory functions in good fettle? Does he play hard and sleep well? Does he go to bed gladly and rise just as gaily? Are his eyes bright? Is his tongue pink? His breath sweet? His disposition good? Then you can be fairly certain that he is in good health. But go on a little farther.

When were his teeth examined? Were they clean and filled, even the baby ones? When did you have his nose and throat examined? Are they free of obstruction or are you waiting until something happens before you have the work done? Have you done all in your power to prevent his being ill?

BOLIVIA AND PARAGUAY WAR IMMINENT

It may be possible before tonight's paper reaches the reader that an overt act of war shall have been committed on the frontier between Bolivia and Paraguay.

Bolivia has withdrawn from the parley at Washington, and while a message has come from the League of Nations to the two governments, it looks as though nothing but a change of front by either Bolivia or Paraguay will prevent open hostilities.

To be sure, deaths have already resulted in the skirmish over the possession of a fort on the border, but this is the cause and preliminary to the war rather than a part of it. Each nation is stirred to its depths by the national spirit. All groups of people seem to be equally patriotic and equally firm in the belief that their nation is in the right.

The whole matter is a dispute over the boundary between the two countries. The commission which was appointed by each to agree upon the boundary line failed to settle their differences, and this difficulty is the result. The hope is still expressed by the chairman of this commission, Fortuna Vega, of Montevideo, that hostilities may be avoided.

It is a real test of the obligations of the League of Nations for both nations are members of that body, and under obligations as was pointed out in the cablegram from Geneva to the settlement of their differences by peaceful means.

A distinguished visitor from Hawaii reported he was favorably impressed by the Senate. It was just before Congress convened.

PLOT AGAINST HOOVER IN ARGENTINA

Undoubtedly the people of the nation are shocked today to learn of a plot against the life of President-elect Herbert Hoover in the republic of Argentina. This plot was discovered, and the alleged planners are under arrest.

The authorities are to be congratulated on discovering this anarchistic plan which might have resulted in something extremely serious. We are not, however, to take it that this represents in any sense the spirit of the Argentine people.

Taking it by and large our South American neighbors received Mr. Hoover in the fine spirit of goodwill and cheer which he himself has carried with him to these points. To be sure, there are some who have an attitude of resentment, if not of hostility and that spirit may have been manifested in this lawless plan which was discovered. It only takes a very few who are out of harmony with the spirit of such an occasion to cast a disturbing shadow over festivities.

We do not believe it is of any serious importance and certainly does not reflect the attitude of the government. Undoubtedly it will be a cause for a larger and finer expression of welcome on the part of the natives as well as the government itself.

KING GEORGE VERY LOW

The condition of King George is growing worse. England, with the holidays upon her, may be plunged into official mourning. All social engagements would then be called off.

This would affect the income of many institutions so greatly that it might even wreck them had they not already insured themselves against such catastrophes through Lloyds, which will insure against any contingency if a sufficient premium is paid.
